Benny's Big Easter Adventure

STORY OF BENNY & FRIENDS

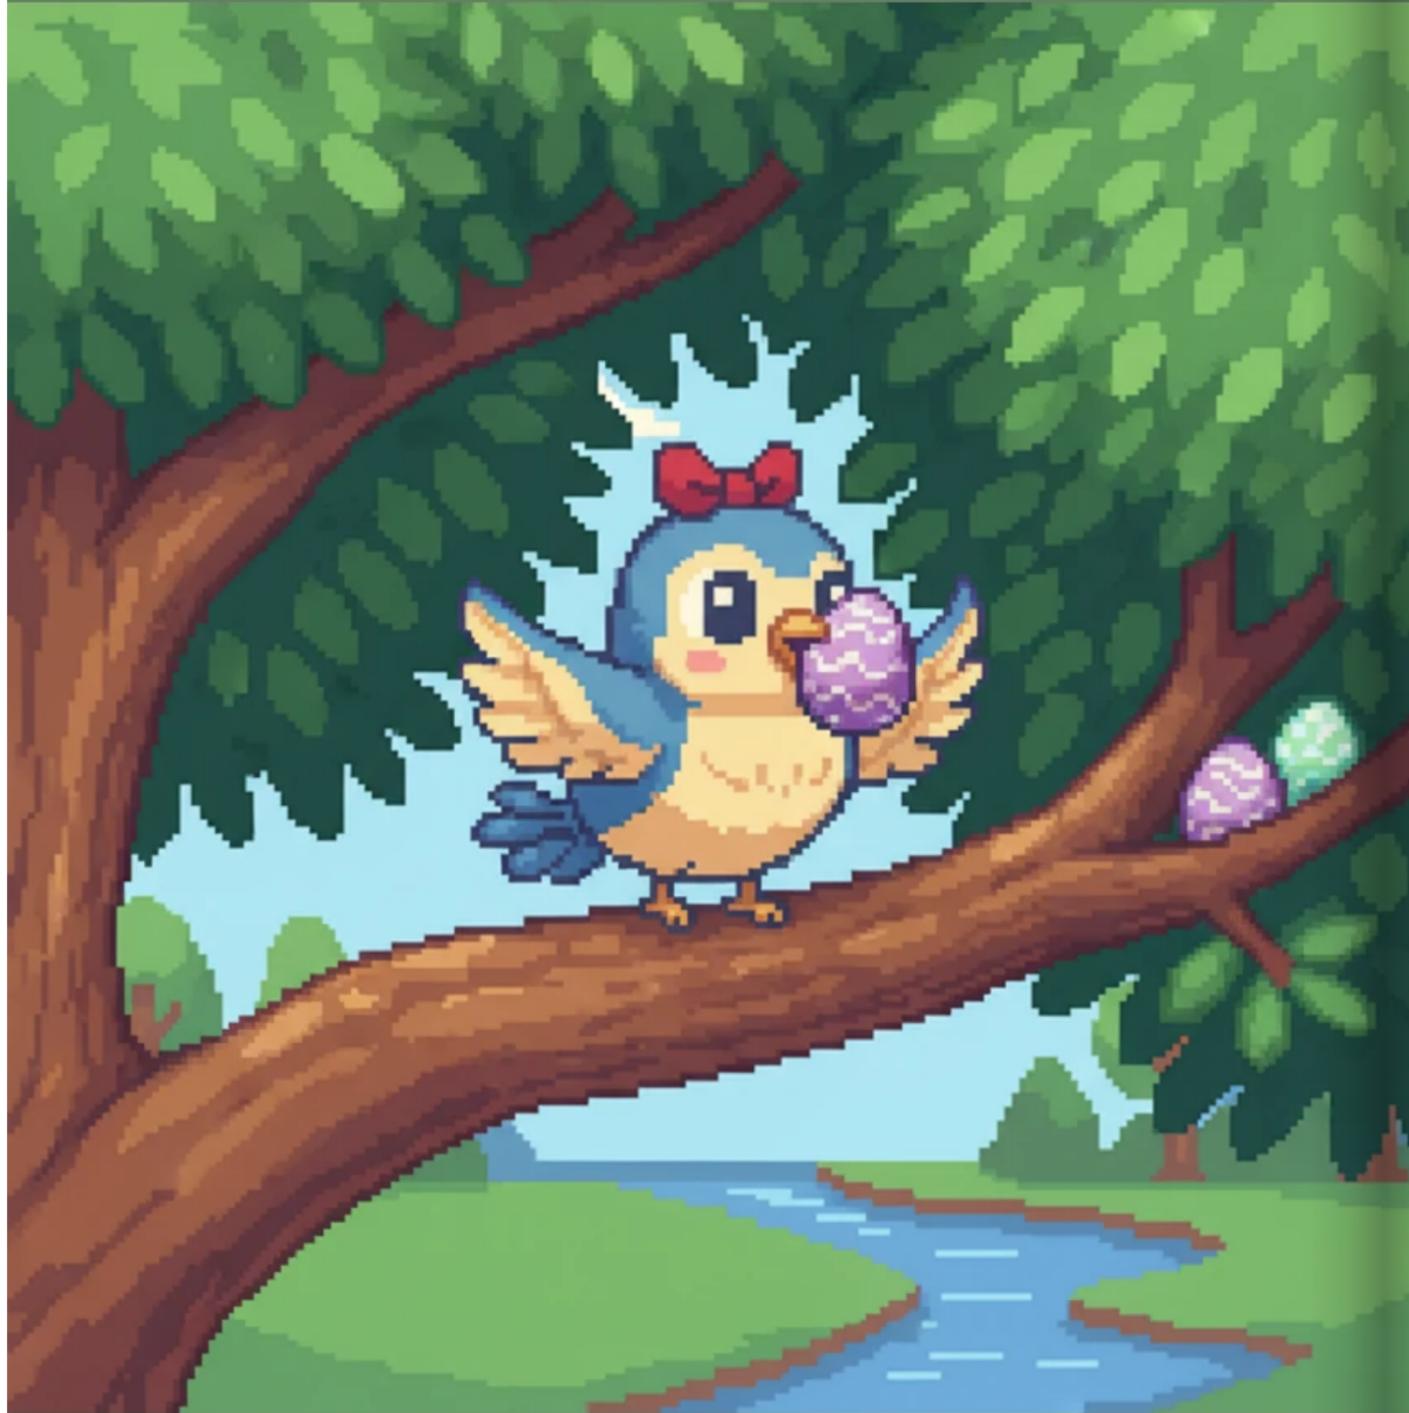

Benny the Easter Bunny woke up early as the sun began to peek over the horizon, painting the sky in soft pinks. He put on his favorite little green hat and grabbed his sturdy wicker basket, feeling excited for the busy day of hiding eggs ahead.

Benny hopped joyfully into the colorful flower meadow, where the morning dew sparkled like diamonds on the grass. He carefully tucked a bright red egg under a large yellow flower and hid a blue egg behind a smooth, shiny rock.

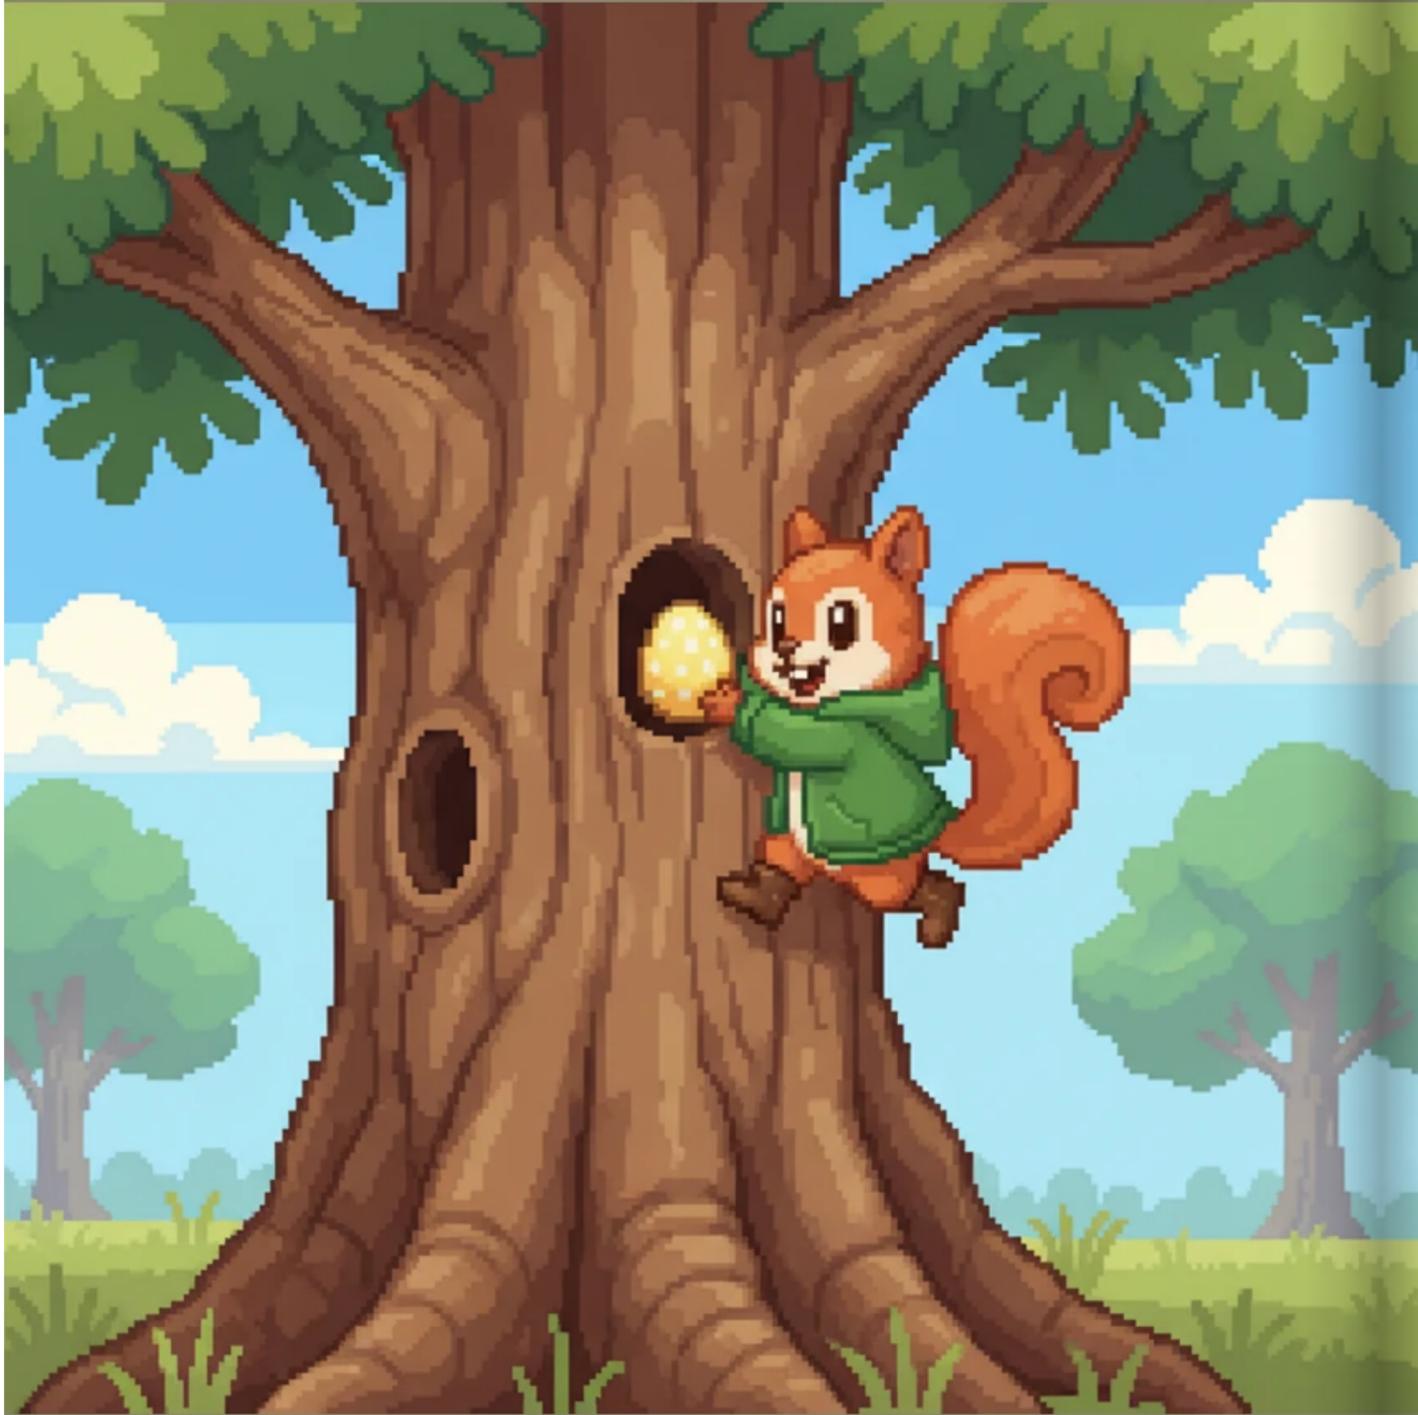

On the winding forest path, Benny heard a cheerful chirp and looked up to see Polly the little bird perched on a branch. He stopped to say hello and asked his feathered friend if she would like to help him with his important Easter task.

Polly chirped with delight and took a beautiful purple egg in her beak, flying high into the leafy canopy. She found a safe, cozy spot on a sturdy tree branch to hide the egg where the children would have to look closely to find it.

Benny arrived at the edge of the sparkling river, where the clear water danced over colorful stones. He met Sammy the squirrel, who was busy gathering nuts but paused to see what was inside Benny's colorful basket.

Sammy gave a big smile and took a sunny yellow egg, scurrying quickly up a tall oak tree. He carefully placed the egg inside a small, secret hole in the trunk, making sure it was perfectly hidden for the big Easter hunt.

THE GREAT EGG DEBACLE

TWEET!

As Benny reached the top of the lush green hill, he stopped to count his eggs and gasped in surprise. He realized one egg was missing and began searching frantically under flowers and behind trees, wondering where it could have gone.

Suddenly, a soft giggle came from behind a patch of clover, and Lila the little lamb appeared. She was gently holding a bright green egg in her mouth, her eyes twinkling with mischief and kindness as she approached Benny.

Benny laughed with relief as he and Lila found the perfect hiding spot for the final green egg behind a large, leafy bush. All the friends gathered together, looking out over the meadow and hills, proud of their hard work and teamwork.

As the sun began to set in a sky of gold and orange, Benny sat down to nibble a crunchy carrot. He felt tired but incredibly happy, knowing that his friends had helped him make the children's Easter morning truly magical.
