Kang Eun-sol balances her humble life working late hours at a neighborhood market to support her family while secretly gazing at the glittering towers of Kim International High School. On a stormy evening near the campus, her world shatters when she glances up and witnesses a silhouette plunging from the high rooftop into the shadows below.

Before she can process the horrifying event, Eun-sol is unexpectedly awarded a prestigious full scholarship to step through the grand, gilded gates of Kim International High School. Surrounded by lavish marble halls and unimaginable luxury, she quickly senses that this golden opportunity is actually a sinister trap designed to keep her close and silent.

On her first day, Eun-sol is confronted in the opulent hallway by Jung Wonyoung, the school's ruthless queen bee who rules the student hierarchy with icy perfection. Whispers and cold stares follow the new scholarship student, but Eun-sol holds her head high, refusing to let the cruel elite break her spirit.
