

Kingston's Big Idea

King Sten

Kingston the kangaroo hopped through his messy room, tripping over toys and books. His mama always said, "A tidy room is a tidy mind!"

He sighed, looking at the chaos. Where would he even begin? Suddenly, an idea sparked in his bright eyes!

"I'll create a folder!" Kingston exclaimed. He rummaged through his craft box and found colorful paper and shiny stickers.

First, he carefully folded the paper to make a sturdy folder. He used his paws to smooth out any wrinkles.

Next, Kingston decorated the folder with vibrant stickers of his favorite things: bouncing balls, juicy carrots, and fluffy clouds.

He labeled the folder in big, bold letters: "Kingston's Treasures!" Now, it was time to fill it.

Kingston carefully placed his favorite drawings into the folder, followed by his collection of shiny pebbles.

He even tucked in a special feather he found on his last adventure, keeping it safe and sound.

Looking at his organized folder, Kingston felt a surge of pride. His room still needed work, but this was a great start!

With a hop and a skip, Kingston realized that even small steps can make a big difference. And now, he had a perfect place for his treasures!
