

Scene 1: Pip's Wonderful Day Begins!

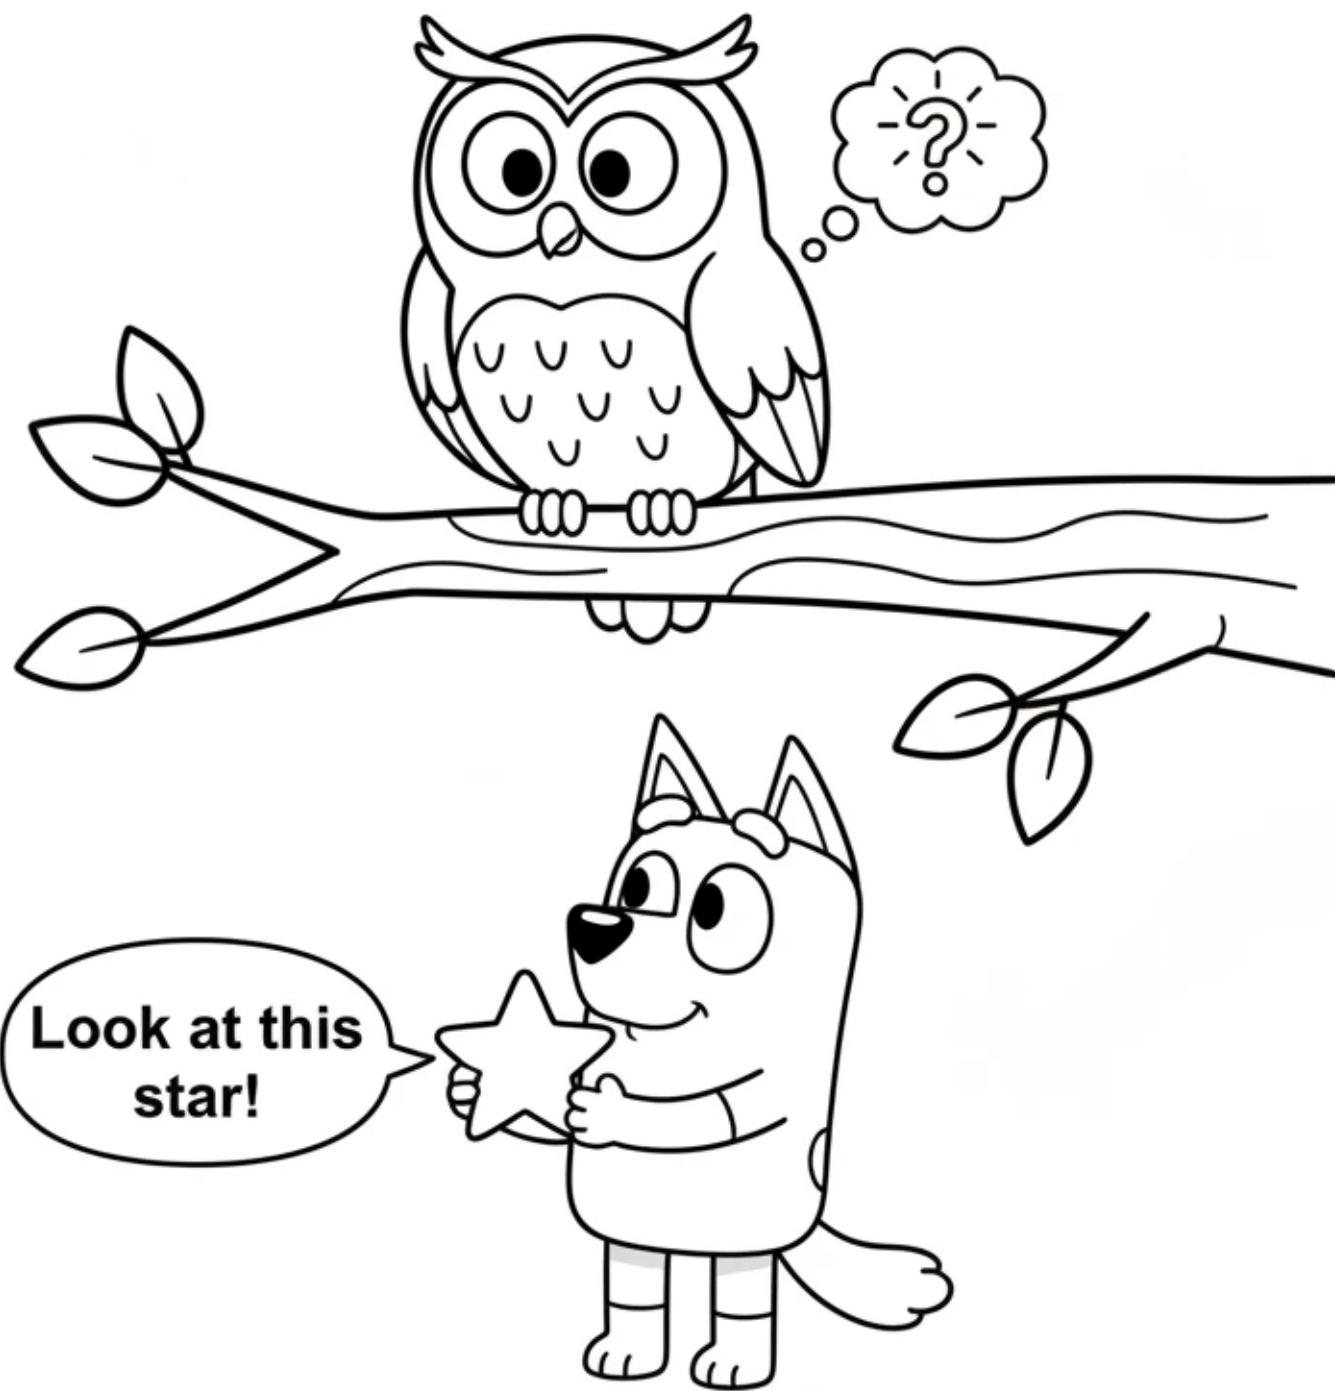

While playing in her garden, Pip spotted something unusual.

It was a tiny, five-pointed star, resting gently on a green leaf. It looked a little lost.

Pip carefully picked up the little star. She knew it belonged, not the big sky, not on the ground. She decided right then to help it go home.

Pip met a wise old owl and showed him the star.

To reach the sky,
you need a little
bounce!

What a clever idea!

BRIGHT BLUE POND

I'M GOING ON AN ADVENTURE!

The frog loved to jump! Together, Pip and the frog gently bounced the star higher and higher, giggling with each leap.

Soon, a soft, fluffy cloud floated down to meet them. The cloud looked and offered to help the star travel even higher.

Pip waved goodbye as the cloud slowly carried carried the star up, up, up into the vast blue.

Pip smiled, feeling warm and happy.
