Choo the Little Chick

Mélanie Venne

Choo is a little chick. He lives in a small wooden shack near the green meadow. Today, Choo wants to go out for a big walk.

Choo puts on a warm red scarf. He looks into a small tin box on the table. Inside, he finds a shiny silver coin.

Choo puts the shiny coin safely inside his favorite green pouch. He steps outside his home and enters the quiet forest.

The cold wind blows softly through the tall trees. Choo walks carefully on the damp ground. Suddenly, he hears a happy sound nearby.

It is his good friend, a big fluffy white sheep. The sheep is chewing on some fresh green grass. Choo waves his hand and says hello.

Choo continues his walk until he reaches a clear blue river. He sees a small wooden boat resting by the shore. He wants to cross to the other side.

A kind little fish swims right up to the boat. The fish guides the boat safely across the deep water. Choo feels very happy and thanks his new friend.

On the other side of the river, Choo sees a tall hill. He climbs up the winding path step by step. The bright sun begins to go down in the sky.

At the very top of the hill, Choo finds a beautiful garden. There are many colorful flowers blooming everywhere. Choo sits down on a soft rock to rest his tired feet.

Choo looks up at the bright stars filling the night sky. He holds his green pouch tightly and smiles. It was a wonderful adventure for a brave little chick.
