

The Little Prince

— ★ and the ★ — Secrets of the Stars

The Little Prince and the Secrets of the Stars

Iza Rachowicz

On the tiny Asteroid B612, an eleven-year-old boy named the Little Prince lives quietly, wearing a blue coat and a bright red scarf. He spends his days carefully sweeping out his small volcanoes and pulling up dangerous baobab sprouts before they can overrun his home.

One day, a beautiful and mysterious Rose blossoms on the planet, capturing the Little Prince's heart with her elegance. However, she proves to be proud and demanding, constantly needing glass globes and screens to protect her from the wind until her vanity completely exhausts him.

Seeking answers, the Little Prince begins a journey across neighboring planets, first meeting a solitary King who commands the universe with reasonable laws. Next, he visits a Vain Man who wears a magnificent hat and only cares about hearing applause and praise from visitors.

Continuing his voyage, the boy visits a somber planet where a Drunkard drinks to forget the shame of his drinking habit. He then travels to a fourth planet ruled by a busy Businessman, who endlessly counts the stars and claims ownership over them just to feel wealthy.

On a tiny world where a day lasts only one minute, the Prince admires a hardworking Lamplighter who selflessly lights and extinguishes his lamp. Afterward, he visits a grand Geographer who records maps but has never seen the world, who advises the boy to visit Earth.

The Little Prince lands in the vast, quiet desert of Earth, where his very first encounter is with a golden, mysterious Snake. The creature speaks in riddles and softly promises that her powerful venom can one day send him back to his distant home whenever he wishes.

As the boy wanders across the planet, he discovers a lush garden overflowing with thousands of blooming roses. He weeps in disappointment, realizing that his beloved Rose back home is not unique or one-of-a-kind in the universe as she had proudly claimed.

A wise Fox appears and gently asks the Little Prince to tame him, teaching him that shared time and care make someone truly special. Before they say a heartbreaking goodbye, the Fox reveals a grand secret: it is only with the heart that one can see rightly.

After meeting a busy Railway Switchman and a water-saving Merchant, the Prince spends days sharing his cosmic stories with a stranded Pilot in the desert. On the eighth day, they search the vast sands together and find a beautiful, life-saving well of cool water.

Realizing his responsibility to his Rose, the Little Prince allows the golden Snake to bite him so his spirit can journey home. His heavy earthly body falls gently onto the sand, leaving the Pilot to look up at the starry sky, knowing his friend is finally back on B612.