A tiny, round sprite named Wisp wakes up in a soft, leaf bed. Sunlight peeks through big, happy leaves above. Wisp stretches little arms with a big yawn, ready for a new day.

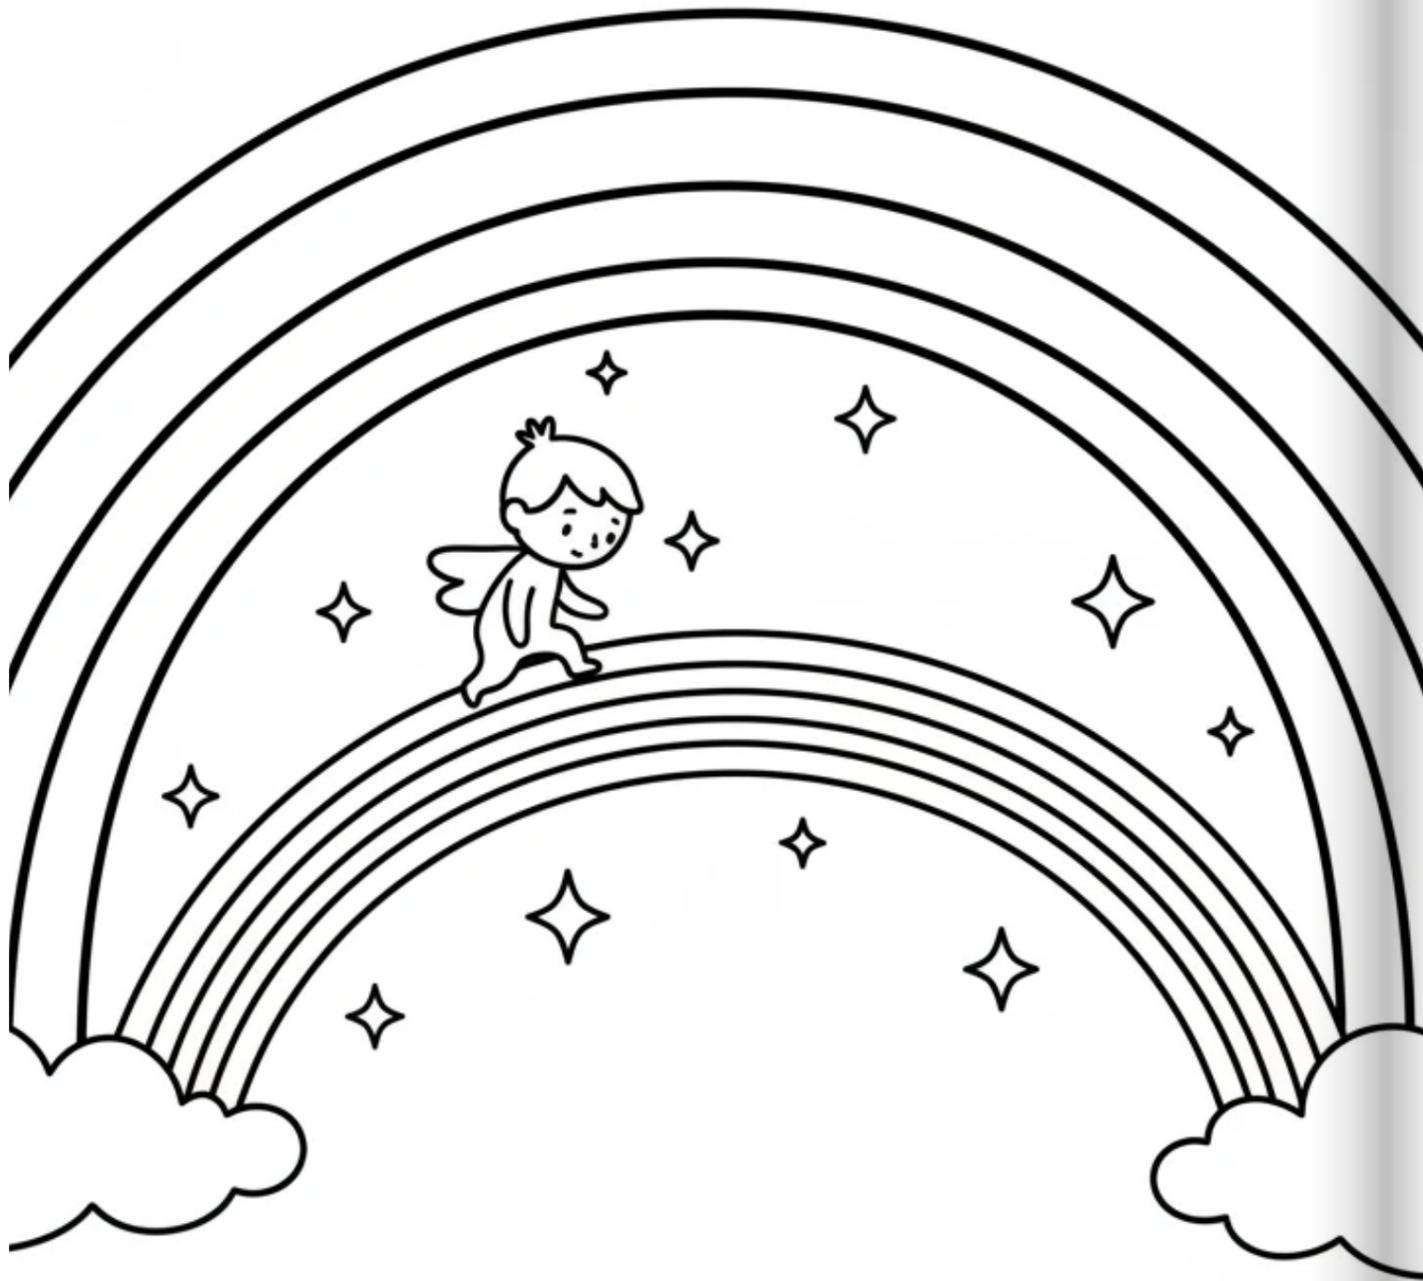

Wisp floats gently past a giant, smiling flower. The flower's petals are wide open, showing off a sparkly center. A friendly bumblebee buzzes happily nearby, collecting nectar.

Wisp giggles while playing hide-and-seek with a fluffy cloud. The cloud drifts slowly across the sky, its round shape changing playfully. Wisp reaches out with a tiny hand, trying to touch it.

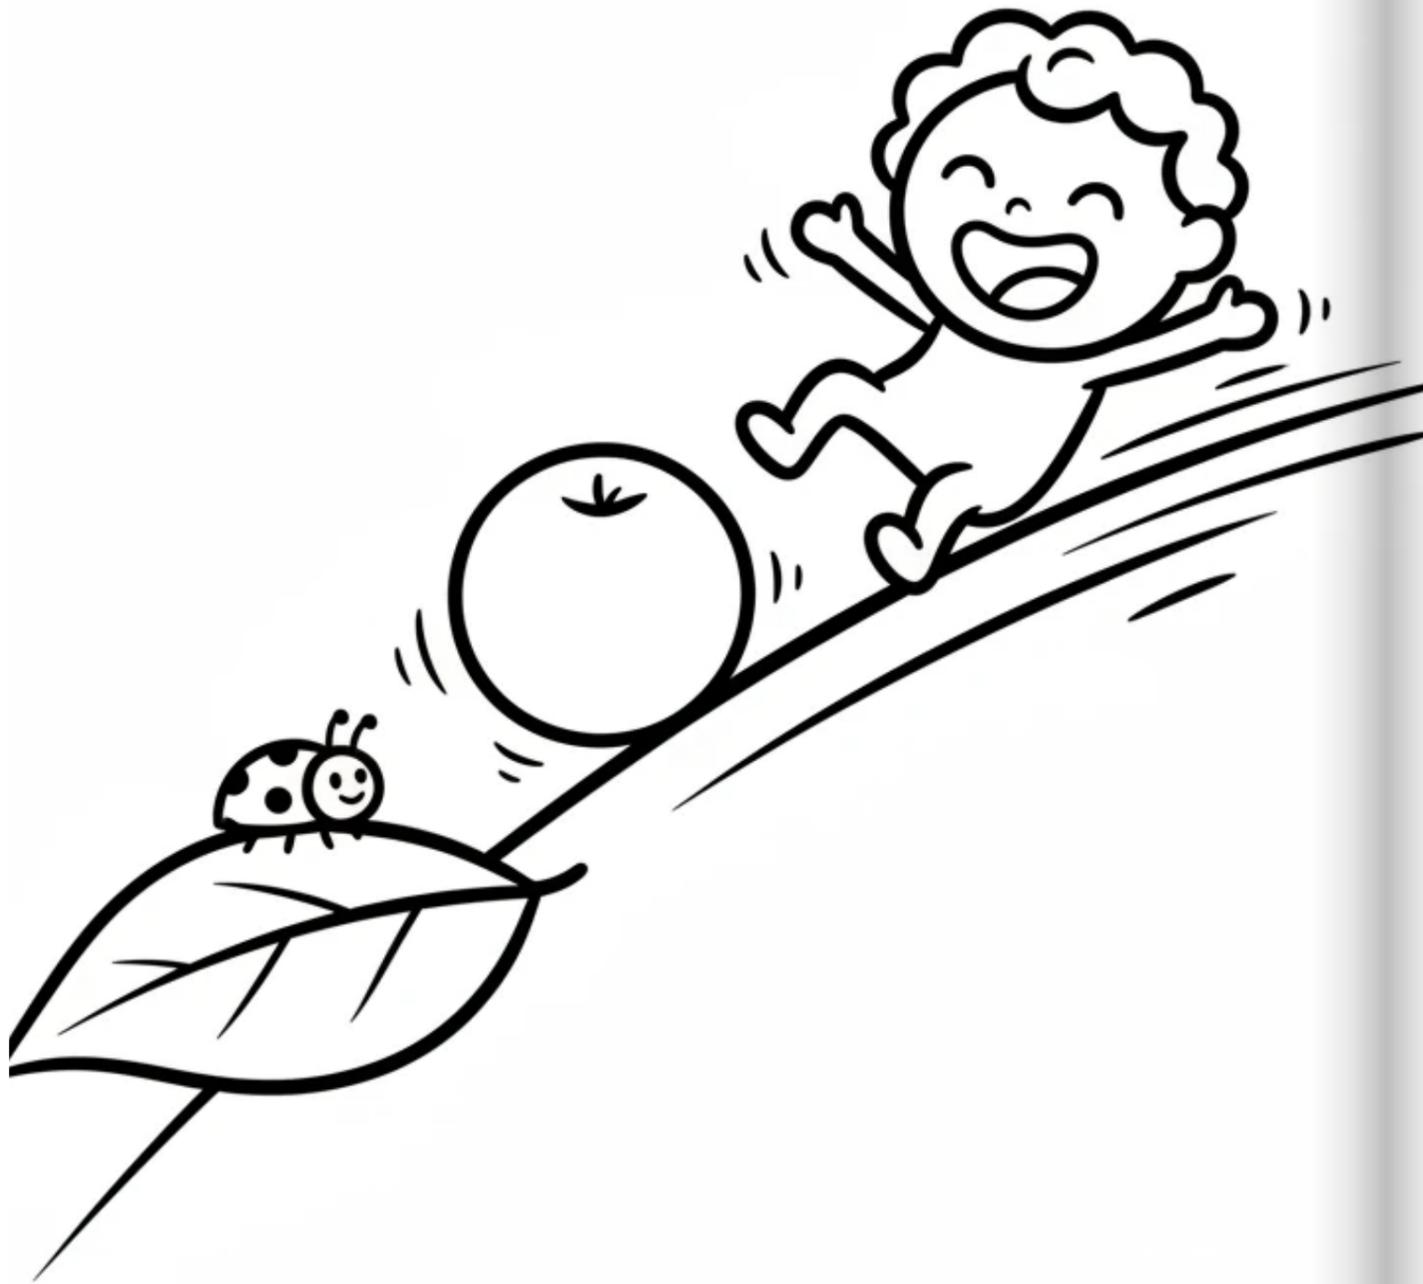

Wisp discovers a family of happy mushrooms. One mushroom is tall and round, another is small and wobbly. They seem to be whispering secrets to each other, making Wisp curious.

A bright, arching rainbow appears in the sky. Wisp carefully steps onto its colorful bridge. Little stars twinkle around Wisp, making the journey feel extra special and bright.

Wisp finds a clear, bubbly stream. Tiny fish with happy fins swim past, wiggling their tails. Wisp dips a toe in the cool water, feeling the gentle splash.

Wisp laughs while chasing a bouncy, round berry. The berry rolls down a gentle hill, making Wisp tumble playfully after it. A little ladybug watches from a leaf.

Wisp watches a group of fireflies dance in the evening air. Their tiny lights blink on and off, creating a beautiful, soft glow. Wisp claps tiny hands in delight at the magical show.

The big, round moon rises high in the sky. Wisp floats up, up, up, to give the sleepy moon a little goodnight hug. Stars sparkle all around, like diamond dust.

Wisp returns to the cozy leaf bed, tired but happy. A soft blanket of starlight covers Wisp. Sweet dreams fill the air, ready for another magical day tomorrow.
