

OUR ADVENTURE BEGINS

A Beautiful Day in Salim's Life

Ahmed Hamdy

▶ A heartwarming tale of family, fun, and imagination

Salim is a bright and kind-hearted boy who always starts his morning with a big, friendly smile. On the cover of his book, he stands happily in a world full of sunshine and vibrant colors.

As the golden sun peeks through the window, Salim wakes up feeling refreshed and full of energy. He stretches his arms wide, excited for all the wonderful things the new day will bring.

Salim carefully tucks in his blankets and straightens his pillows to make his bed look neat and tidy. He loves how cozy and beautiful his colorful bedroom feels when everything is in its place.

With a calm heart, Salim goes to the sink to perform wudu with cool, clear water. He prepares himself for prayer, feeling clean and peaceful in the quiet morning light.

Salim stands on his soft prayer mat, bowing his head in quiet thanks for his family and his happy life. The room is filled with a gentle spiritual glow as he prays with focus and sincerity.

Salim helps his mother by tidying up the living room, making sure every cushion is in the right spot. His mother gives him a proud smile, happy to have such a helpful and caring son.

At his little desk, Salim focuses on his lessons, reading his books and writing with great care. He knows that working hard and learning new things is the key to a bright future.

After finishing all his chores and homework, Salim enjoys some fun time playing a creative game on his tablet. He smiles as he builds colorful worlds and explores new digital adventures.

Salim sits with his family at the dinner table, sharing a delicious meal and many happy stories. The house is filled with warmth and laughter as they enjoy their time together.

As the stars begin to twinkle outside, Salim snuggles into his bed, feeling happy and content. He closes his eyes with a smile, dreaming of another beautiful day tomorrow.
