Zippy was a tiny creature round and quick, with two little legs that moved moved faster than a blink.

He loved to zoom!

One sunny morning, Zippy zoomed past tall trees and bright flowers.

The world was a happy, green swirl as he he raced along his favorite path.

Suddenly, Zippy saw a little squirrel sitting sadly. Its pile of nuts had tumbled down a small hill, scattering them far and wide.

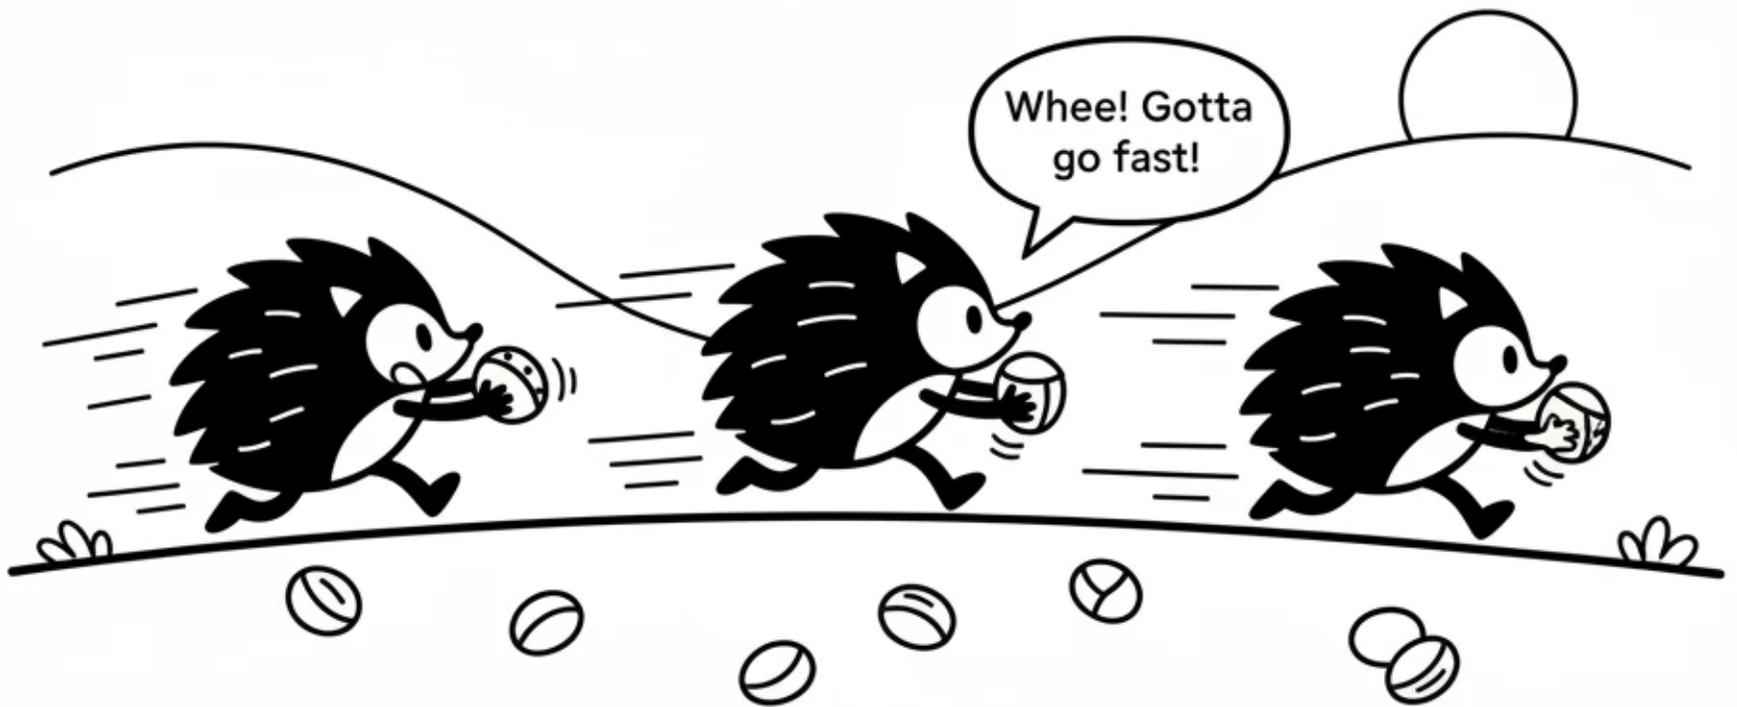

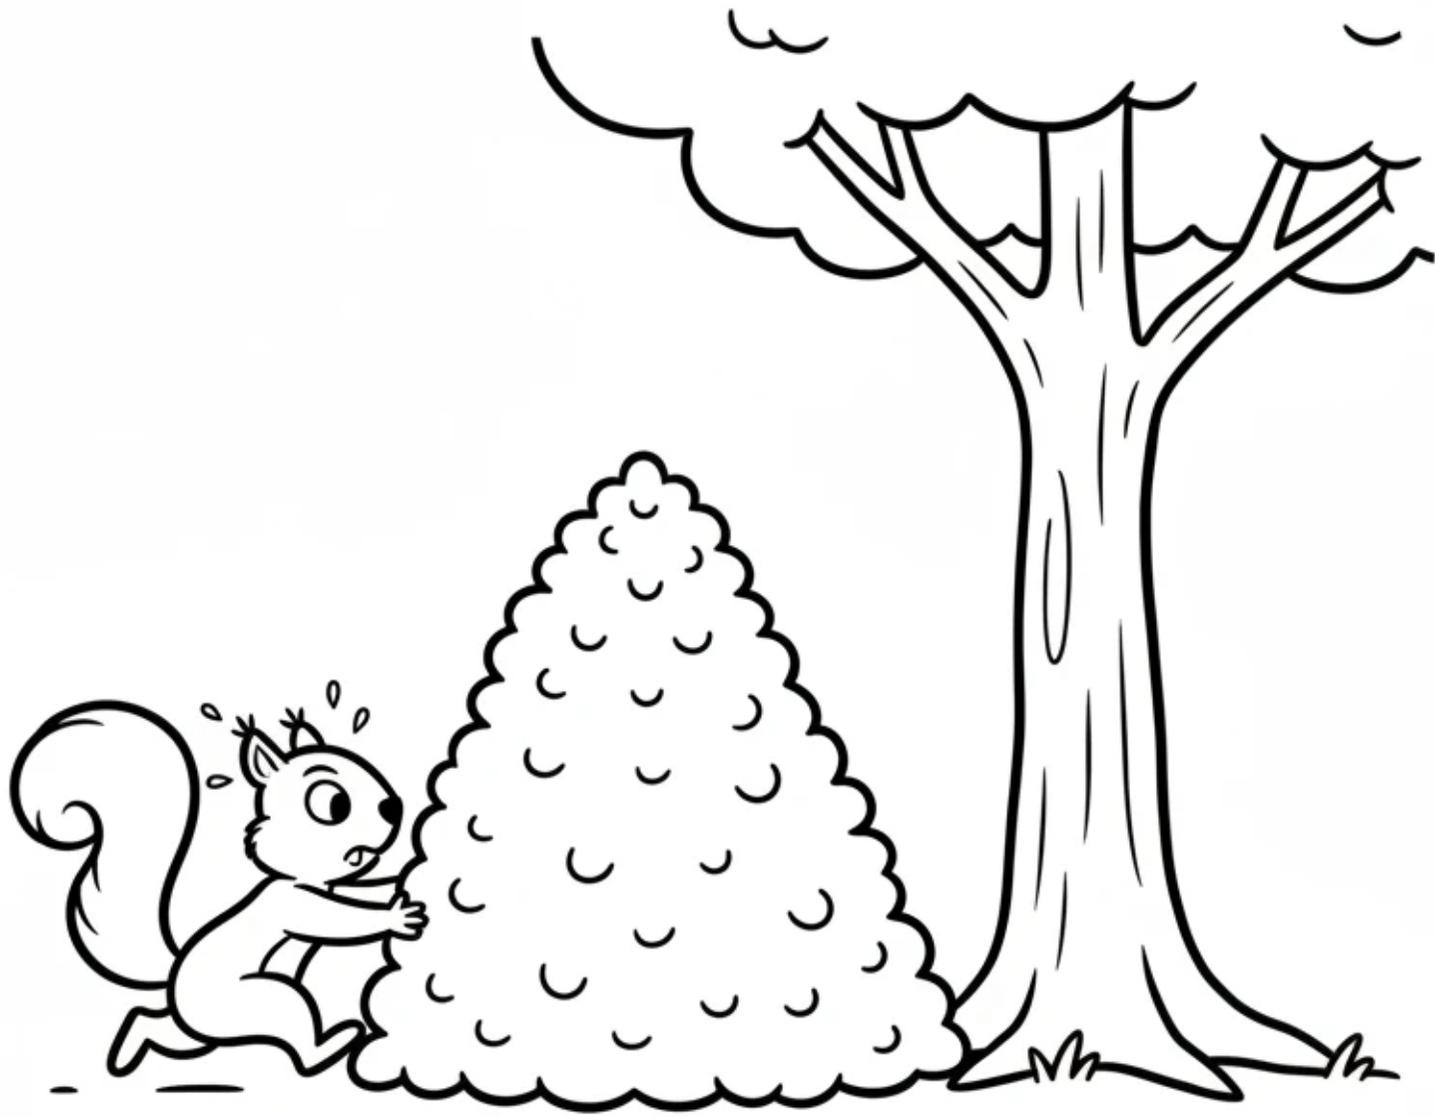

Zippy stopped his speedy dash. He saw the squirrel's big, worried eyes. A warm feeling in Zippy's chest, telling him to help.

Scene 5 of 10:

With a determined wiggle, Zippy began to zip!
He dashed back and forth, piorth, picking up one nut a time, a time, moving like tiny black streak.

Faster and faster Zippy went. a perfect, tall mound.

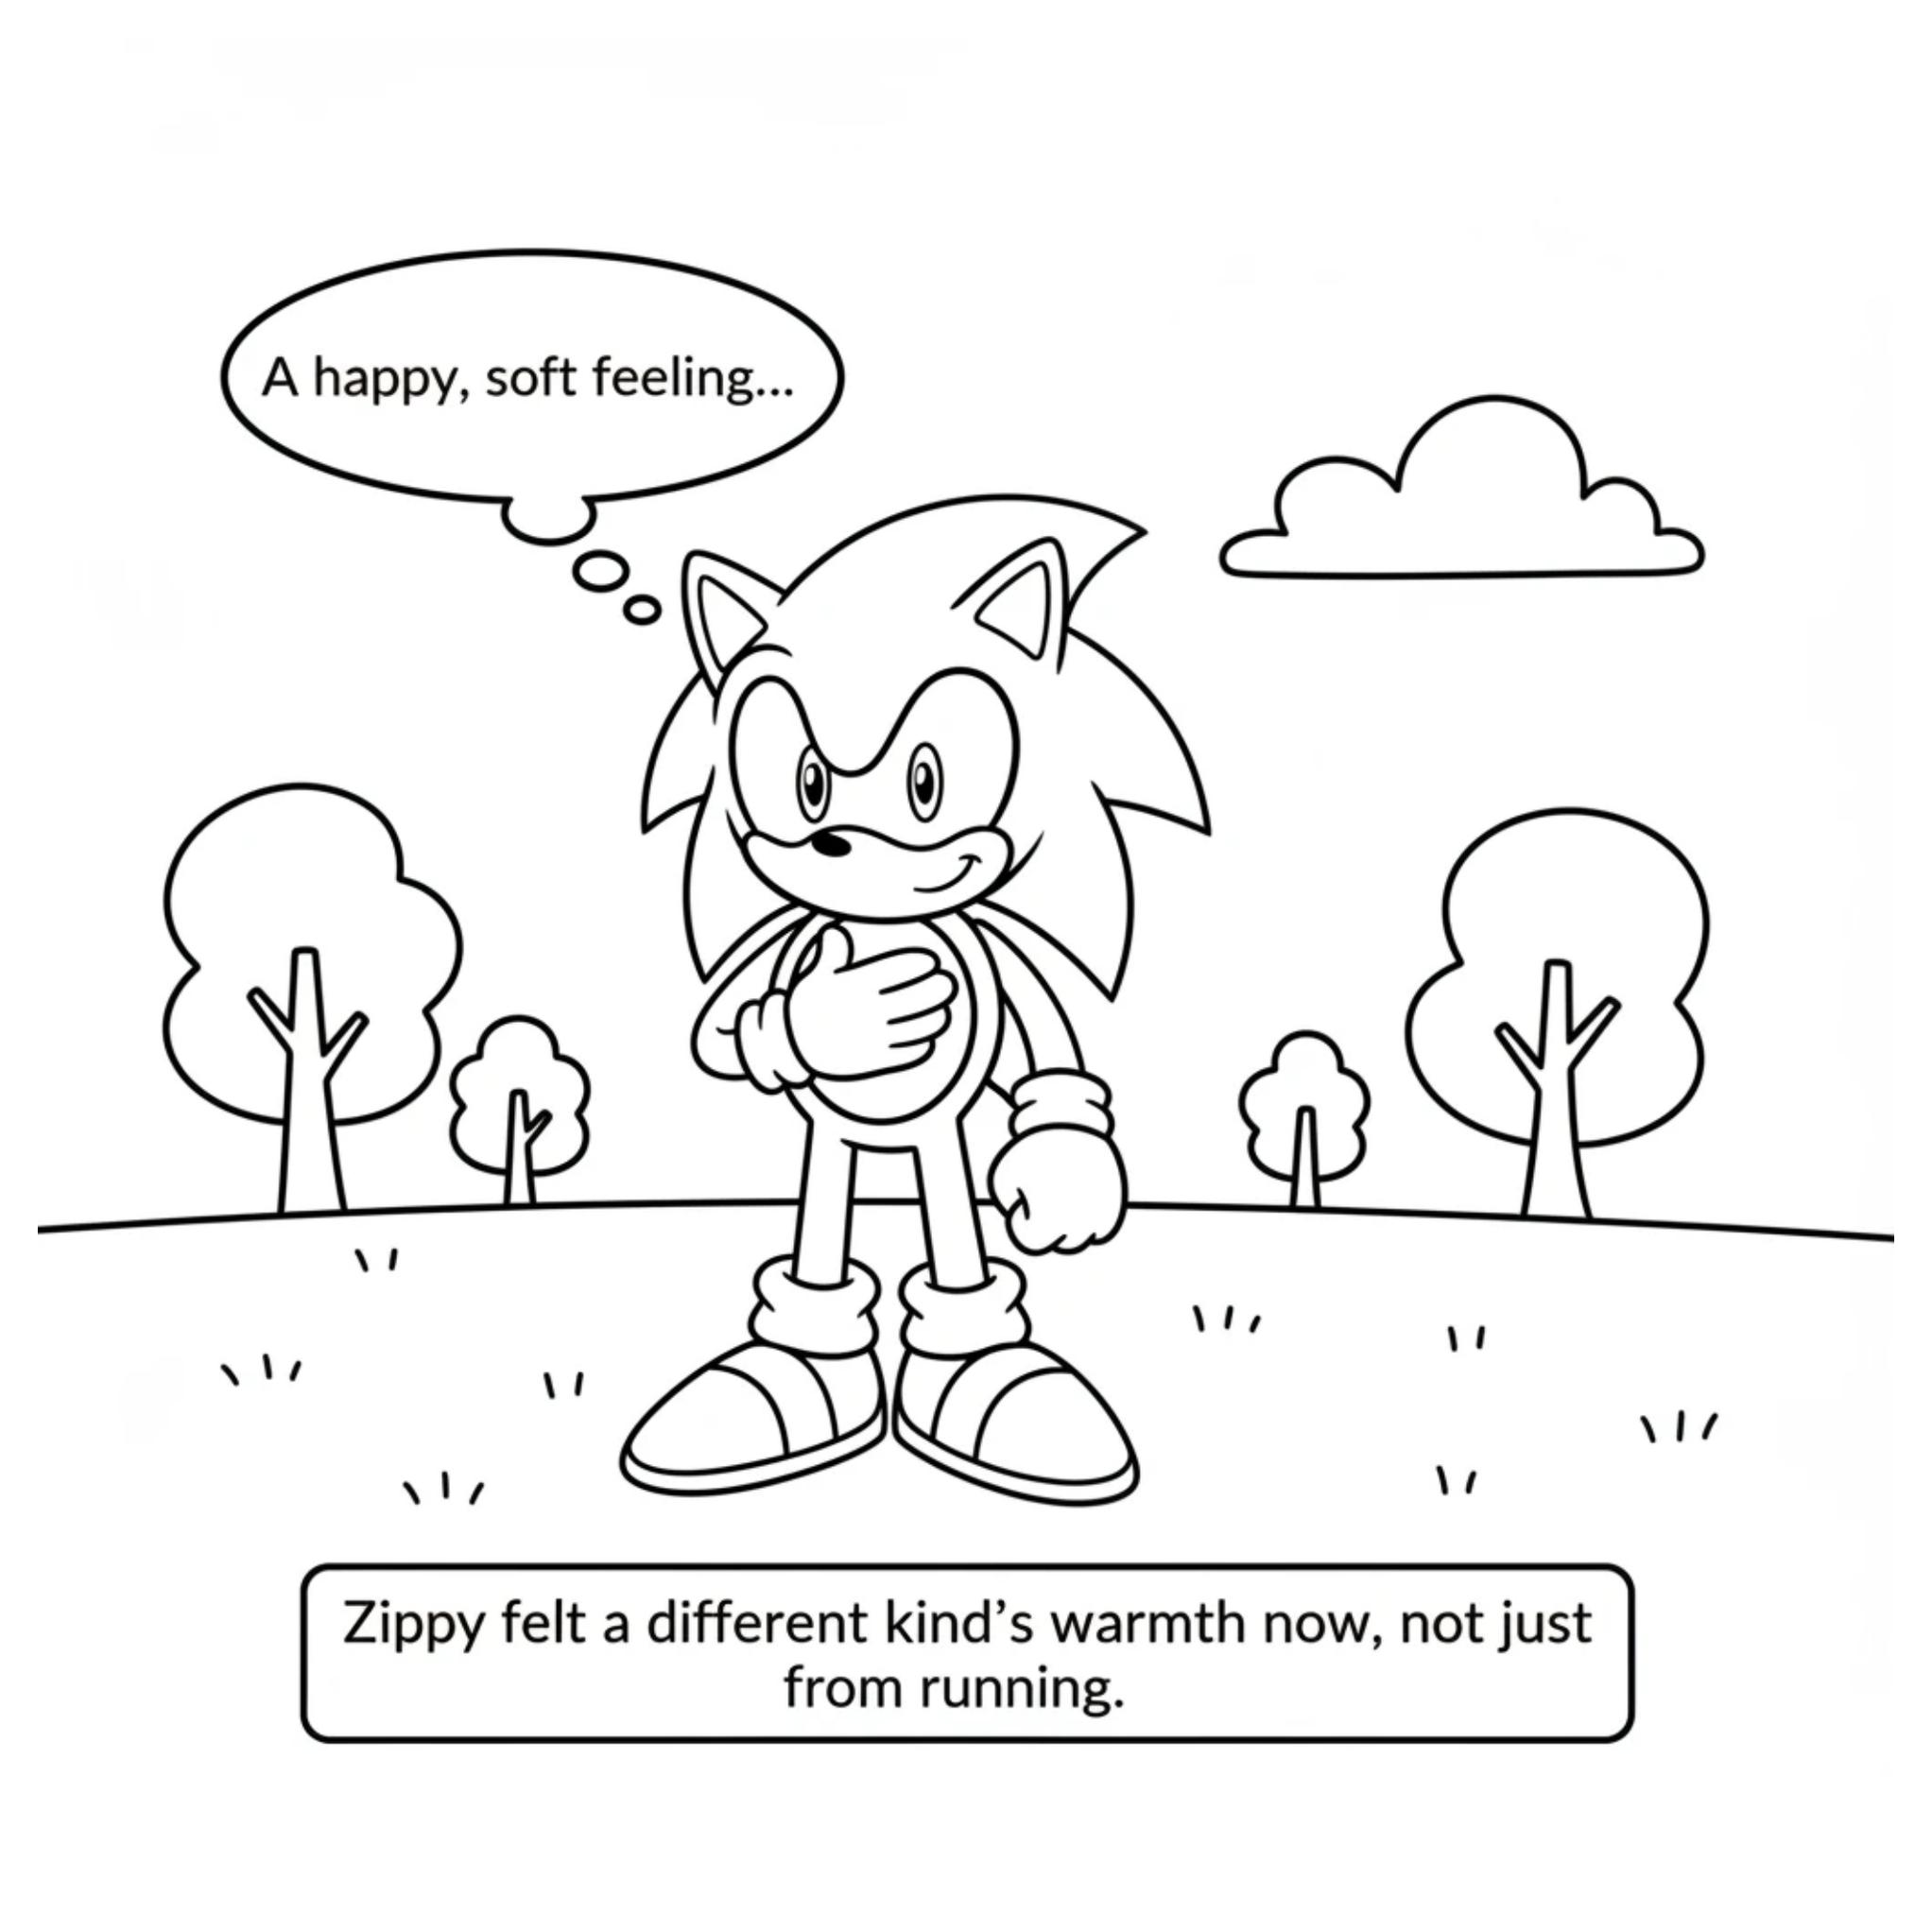

The squirrel chattered happily, thanking Zippy for his speedy help.

THANKS, ZIPPY!
YOU'RE SO FAST!

Other forest friends watched from behind a bush.
They saw Zippy's kind act and smiled too.

A happy, soft feeling...

Zippy felt a different kind's warmth now, not just from running.
