

THE PARK ADVENTURE!

The Dragon of Snowden Park

Mimi

THE FIRST FLIGHT

Lumi and Petals, two tiny shimmering fairies with gossamer wings, fly across the sparkling blue ocean from Mimi and Bapa's garden. They arrive in the lush, green landscapes of New Zealand, their trail of magic dust glowing against the romantic, soft-focus hills as they search for their friends.

Liam, with his straight brown hair, and little Cleo, with her short bouncy curls, are overjoyed to find the fairies waiting for them in the garden. Lumi and Petals flutter around their heads, whispering that a grand adventure is about to begin in the mystical woods of Snowden Park.

Deep within the ferns of Snowden Park, the group discovers a magnificent, iridescent egg nestled in a bed of moss. It shimmers with orange and purple light, looking like a fallen star, and the children decide to keep it safe in their secret hideout in the bicycle shed.

Inside the quiet shed, the egg begins to crack and glow with a warm light until a tiny dragon with shimmering orange and purple scales emerges. Liam and Cleo name him Fizzle, but as he lets out a friendly, smoky chirp, they affectionately call him Lugga, their new secret best friend.

MAGIC MESS!

Liam and Cleo sneak out of the kitchen with plates piled high with cheese, bread, and crisp apples to feed their growing dragon. In the background, Mom looks confused as she checks the pantry, wondering where all the food has gone and playfully blaming Dad for the missing snacks.

One sunny afternoon while Mom and Dad are busy inside, Liam and Cleo lead Lugga out into the yard for some fresh air. The garden is filled with soft, romantic light as the fairies hover nearby, watching the children play with their magical, shimmering companion.

LIAM

Cleo reaches out to tickle Lugga's soft belly, causing the little dragon to let out a giant, bubbly laugh that accidentally turns into a fiery sneeze. A small puff of flame shoots toward the laundry line, and Liam gasps as he sees Dad's underpants now have two very large, smoking burnt holes in them.

Oh no, we have to hide him! Liam and Cleo quickly usher a giggling Lugga back into the shed before Mom can see the laundry disaster. Lumi and Petals laugh along with them, telling the children that soon they must all travel to meet Harli and Maddie in Mimi and Bapa's garden.

MAGIC HOUR TALES

Lumi and Petals explain their magical plan to use special dust so that once Lugga is big enough, he can fly Liam and Cleo all the way to South Africa. The children imagine soaring through the clouds on dragon-back to visit their cousins Harli, with her long blond pigtails, and little Maddie.

🥕 EASTER ADVENTURE! 🥕

As the sun sets in a golden glow, the fairies prepare to fly back to their own garden, promising to stay in touch through magic. They wish Liam and Cleo a wonderful Easter holiday, leaving the children standing in the twilight with hearts full of magic and a dragon hidden in the shed.
