

Dippy and the River

MEYDALINKA INANSI DEA

Meet Dippy. Dippy is a clever deer.

Dippy wants to cross the blue river. But oh no, there is a big crocodile in the river.

The crocodile has big teeth. The crocodile wants to eat the deer.

Dippy is smart. Dippy is not scared.

Dippy sees a green turtle in the water. Hello, friendly turtle, says the deer.

The clever deer has a good plan. The deer talks to the crocodile.

Mr. Crocodile, please count your family. I will help you count the crocodile family.

The big crocodile is happy. The crocodile calls his family to make a line.

Dippy the deer jumps on the crocodile. One, two, three, the deer jumps across the river.

Dippy is safe on the other side. Goodbye, silly crocodile, says the clever deer.
