

Luna's Hide-and-Seek

Mu Ryan

Luna the moon felt a little shy. She peeked out from behind a big, fluffy cloud, giggling softly.

The stars noticed Luna was missing! Twinkle, the brightest star, decided they should find her.

Twinkle gathered all the other stars. They formed a sparkling search party, ready to explore the night sky.

They looked behind Jupiter, but Luna wasn't there. They searched near Mars, but only found dust.

A wise old owl, perched on a cloud, hooted,
"Perhaps Luna is playing hide-and-seek near the Big Dipper!"

The stars zoomed towards the Big Dipper, their light trails painting streaks across the dark canvas.

Suddenly, they saw a faint glow behind a particularly large cloud. Could it be Luna?

Twinkle gently called out, "Luna, are you hiding there? We miss your beautiful light!"

Luna peeked out shyly. "I was just feeling a little silly!" she whispered.

The stars cheered! Luna smiled, her light shining brighter than ever, happy to be found and loved.
