Glimmer's Great Big Feast

High above the sparkling blue ocean lived Glimmer, a tiny Light Fury. She was no bigger than a fluffy cloud, with bright, curious eyes and soft, pearly scales. She loved soaring through the sky, but most of all, she loved the smell of fresh fish.

One sunny morning, Glimmer spotted something shimmering below. It was a plump, silver fish, swimming lazily near the surface! Her tummy rumbled with excitement, and she swooped down with a happy flutter.

Glimmer gobbled up the fish in one delightful gulp. A tiny, adorable 'burp!' escaped her, and to her surprise, she felt a little bit bigger! Her scales glowed even brighter with contentment.

Feeling wonderfully full, Glimmer continued her flight, only to discover an entire school of fish, swirling like a silver tornado! Her eyes widened, and a playful grin spread across her face. This was going to be fun!

She dove into the shimmering school, munching happily on fish after fish. With each tasty bite, Glimmer grew, her body expanding with joyful energy. Her burps grew bigger too, sounding like little puffs of cloud.

Soon, Glimmer was as large as a small fishing boat, her wings now powerful and grand. She giggled, swirling through the water, still enjoying her endless fishy feast. The ocean felt like her personal buffet!

The sun began to set, painting the sky in fiery colors, but Glimmer was still eating! She was now enormous, easily towering over the tallest palm trees on the nearest island. A truly massive burp rumbled from her, echoing across the water.

After an epic, star-filled feast, Glimmer was unbelievably gigantic. She was bigger than any mountain, her pearly scales reflecting the moonlight like a thousand stars. Her final, colossal burp sent ripples through the entire ocean.

Finally, Glimmer settled down, a magnificent, happy dragon, now larger than a whole island! She floated serenely on the water, a comfortable, wonderfully fat island of a dragon. She absolutely adored her grand, new size.

With a contented sigh and a happy smile, Glimmer gazed at the world from her new, enormous perspective. She was the happiest, biggest dragon anyone had ever seen, a true gentle giant who loved her fish, her burps, and most of all, herself.
