

Four Little Ghosts and Big Feelings

Maribel Palma Moncada

Four cute ghost friends live in a sunny meadow. Meet Yellow, Blue, Red, and Purple! (Teacher note: Point to the four friendly ghosts.)

Yellow plays with a bright red ball. "I am happy!" says Yellow. (Teacher note: Make a big happy smile!)

Oh no! The red ball rolls far away into the tall grass. (Teacher note: Put your hands on your cheeks!)

Blue sits down and misses the fun toy ball. "I am sad," says Blue. (Teacher note: Show a sad face with a tiny pout.)

Red wants to play right now and stomps a foot. "I am angry!" says Red. (Teacher note: Cross your arms and make an angry face.)

Suddenly, a strange noise comes from the bushes! Rustle, rustle, rustle! (Teacher note: Put a hand to your ear and listen.)

Purple hides behind Yellow ghost. "I am scared!" says Purple. (Teacher note: Make a scared face with wide eyes!)

Look! It is just a tiny green frog hopping by.
Ribbit, ribbit! (Teacher note: Hop your hand like a frog and laugh.)

All four ghosts hold hands and share a warm group hug. Friends help each other!
(Teacher note: Give yourself a big warm hug.)

Yellow, Blue, Red, and Purple wave happily to you. How do you feel? (Teacher note: Ask the children to point to a ghost or make a face.)
