Kisbács

In the friendly village of Kisbács, nestled at the foot of the hills, lives a little boy named Robert. Although he is only three years old, his heart beats with excitement every time he sees a bright red car passing by.

When Robert puts on his shiny firefighter helmet, he transforms from a little boy into the bravest future firefighter in the city. He stands proudly in the garden, ready to help anyone in need with his imaginary fire engine and a determined smile.

Robert loves visiting the famous Fire Tower in Kolozsvár, where he can look out over the city from high above. From the top, he watches the busy streets below and makes a silent promise to keep everyone safe and sound.

Every morning, Robert heads to his nursery school with pride to meet his favorite teachers, Kriszta and Ilka. They spend the day laughing and playing together, turning every nursery activity into a fun new rescue mission for the little firefighter.

In the afternoons, the yard in Kisbács comes alive with Robert's best friends, Noel and Axel. Noel knows the names of every construction machine, while Axel is always ready to hop around and play like Peter Rabbit.

A large group of friends, including Emma, Mili, Edu, Liza, Mira, and Panna, join Robert to build a magnificent sandcastle fire station. As the commander, Robert leads the team in their grand imaginative play under the warm afternoon sun.

Robert shares a special bond with his best friend Viki, and together they have traveled to many wonderful places. They have explored the fields of checkered lilies and spent holidays together, baking gingerbread with flour on their noses.

Robert's large and loving family is always ready for an adventure, often traveling to Marosvásárhely to visit cousins and grandparents. There is always a warm welcome and a delicious treat waiting for the little firefighter at Meli mama's house.

Whether visiting Ica mama in Szatmárnémeti or playing with Eszter and Csilla in Kisbács, Robert is always surrounded by love. Every visit is filled with big hugs and joyful games that make every long journey worth it.

After a busy day of extinguishing fires and playing with friends, Robert is tucked into bed by his loving parents, Timi and Ádi. As he drifts off to sleep, he hears the distant bell of the Fire Tower and dreams of his next big adventure in his red fire truck.
