Pupu sat by the window of the old house on the hill, looking at the quiet village below. The night was calm, and Pupu felt a little lonely, but also hopeful for tomorrow.

Pupu the little ghost finally stepped out of its old house. The night was calm and full of stars. Curious and excited, Pupu floated into the forest, ready for a new adventure.

Pupu loved the quiet nights at the edge of the village.
Even when he was alone,
he could still find happiness
in simple moments.

Deep in the dark forest,
Pupu found a small black kitten.
The little kitten was lost and looked up at Pupu fearfully from behind the bushes.

Pupu leaned down gently and reached out a friendly hand to it.

Pupu softened its light and cast a flower shadow on the ground to cheer up the kitten.

The kitten followed Pupu down the village street to find its home. Pupu walked slowly, making sure his new friend stayed safe from the night darkness. Along the way, they shared smiles and played chase.

At last, they found a small house with its back door slightly open. From inside, the anxious voice of a child was heard calling for their cat. The black kitten leaped with joy and ran toward the door.

Before heading inside, the little black kitten turned back and rubbed against Pupu's leg, showing how grateful it was.
Pupu felt so happy and warm in his heart!

Good to see
you again!

Kindness always finds a friend anywhere.

Home feels even brighter
when we share it together.
