High up in an old oak tree, a little round owl wearing a tiny striped scarf keeps watch. The night is quiet and still, illuminated by the soft glow of a silver crescent moon.

Three round bunnies gather around a small wooden table for a delightful afternoon tea party. They share heart-shaped cookies and warm tea in a garden filled with beautiful potted flowers.

A plump little penguin wearing a cozy knit hat slides down a gentle, snowy slope. He leaves a playful trail in the soft snow as he heads down to meet his friends at the bottom.

Inside a warm and rustic kitchen, a round bear gives a giant hug to a massive jar of golden honey. The shelves are filled with jars of jam and wooden spoons, creating a homey atmosphere.

A tiny, circular fox is curled up like a ball in a soft bed of fallen autumn leaves. Small, cute mushrooms grow nearby, and the forest floor is dappled with soft, golden light.
