

RUNNY'S CARROT CAPER

Runny's Carrot Caper

Łukasz Woźniak

Runny hesisted as a almost only carrot.

Runny the bunny, so fluffy and bright, woke up one morning with a terrible fright! His carrot supply was shockingly low, "Oh dear!" cried Runny, "Where will I go?"

He hopped to his friends, Pip the squirrel and Blue the bird, "My carrots are gone, have you ever heard?" Pip chirped, "Farmer McGregor has a garden so grand!" Blue tweeted, "The best carrots grow in that land!"

So Runny set off, with a hop and a skip, towards McGregor's garden, a daring little trip.
The gate was wide open, a tempting invite,
Runny squeezed through, filled with carrot delight!

Inside the garden, rows neat and green, the biggest, juiciest carrots Runny had seen! He nibbled and munched with a happy small sigh, then heard a loud voice shout from nearby!

Farmer McGregor, with a frown on his face, spotted Runny munching at a rapid pace! "Get out of my garden, you mischievous pest!" he boomed, putting Runny to the test.

Runny, Pip, and Blue, with a clever plan, offered to weed McGregor's garden by hand. The farmer agreed, with a smile and a nod, and now they all share the carrots, by the grace of God!