

ALFIE'S ALPHABET ADVENTURE

Alfie's Alphabet Adventure

Abigail Williams

Alfie the Alligator rests under a bright red apple tree in the sunny jungle. He opens his mouth wide and says "Ah-ah-ah" as he reaches for a juicy snack from the low branches.

Along the path, Alfie meets a big, fuzzy Bear bouncing a bright blue ball. The Bear waves his paw and makes a "Buh-buh-buh" sound while he plays near a bush of berries.

Alfie and the Bear spot a clever Cat wearing a colorful cape sitting on a wooden crate. The Cat purrs and says "Cuh-cuh-cuh" while showing off her fancy costume to her new friends.

A happy Dog comes dancing down the dirt road to join the group in the meadow. He wags his tail and barks a friendly "Duh-duh-duh" as he spins in playful circles.

The friends find a giant Elephant eating an enormous eggplant near the tall jungle grass. The Elephant lifts her trunk high and makes a soft "Eh-eh-eh" sound to greet the visitors.

All the animals gather together in a grassy clearing for a wonderful afternoon picnic. They share apples, berries, and cakes while chatting and laughing under the warm, golden sun.

Alfie brings out five giant wooden blocks carved with the letters A, B, C, D, and E. The friends stack them high, practicing each letter's special sound as they build a tall tower.

Suddenly, a magical rainbow stretches across the sky, glowing with the shimmering shapes of the first five letters. The animals look up in awe at the beautiful colors painting the jungle canopy.

The group holds paws and trunks, singing a happy song about their favorite letters and sounds. Their voices fill the air with the harmony of "A, B, C, D, and E" as they celebrate together.
