

I Love Mrs. Monica Because...

Daphne Guasp

Bright sunlight streams into the classroom as Leo and Mrs. Monica kneel together by a small flowerpot. Mrs. Monica, a kind teacher with a warm, gentle smile and friendly eyes, carefully drops a tiny seed into the soil while Leo enthusiastically scoops up a handful of dark dirt to cover it.

Sitting comfortably on a colorful alphabet rug, Leo listens intently with wide, curious eyes. Mrs. Monica holds up a large, vibrant picture book, her face lit up with animation as she reads the magical story aloud to her captivated student.

Leo stands patiently near the cubby area, looking down at his untied sneaker with a hopeful expression. Mrs. Monica kneels on the floor with a warm smile, her hands deftly tying his shoelaces into a perfect, neat bow.

At the brightly colored lunch table, Mrs. Monica sits proudly with Leo, acting as the ultimate lunchtime companion. Her expressive face radiates joy as she cheers him on, making lunchtime feel like the most fun and exciting event of the day.

Mrs. Monica gently helps Leo twist open his stubborn juice box, pouring a bit of lunchtime magic into his day. Afterward, she leans in to give him a sweet, comforting kiss on the cheek, leaving Leo beaming with happiness.

Leo sits at his small desk, focused intently on a colorful worksheet with a crayon in hand. Mrs. Monica leans over his shoulder with an encouraging smile, gently guiding his hand to help him finish his preschool work.

Throughout the busy classroom day, Mrs. Monica is always there with a helpful hand and a patient, loving expression. Whether picking up dropped crayons or sharing a sweet word, her genuine kindness shines brightly in everything she does.

Mrs. Monica surprises Leo by handing him a bright yellow pinwheel she neatly mended just for him. Her thoughtful face and gentle gesture fill the classroom with a sense of warmth, proving how deeply she cares.

Out on the sunny playground, the autumn leaves dance in the wind as Mrs. Monica runs and plays catch with Leo. Her face is filled with laughter and pure joy, matching the happy energy of her enthusiastic little student.

Sitting quietly together during circle time, Mrs. Monica places a comforting hand on Leo's shoulder, gently teaching him how to listen with an open heart. She pulls him into a warm, reassuring hug that makes him feel completely safe and loved.
