Barnaby Bunny wakes up with a big stretch in his cozy bed. The sun shines brightly through his window, promising a wonderful day.

He hops out of bed, his fluffy tail wiggling with excitement. Barnaby grabs his empty basket, ready for a special adventure.

Outside, Barnaby meets his best friend, Rosie Robin. She chirps hello from a branch of a big, blooming spring tree.

Together, they spot something bright peeking from the green grass. It's a shiny yellow egg, the first discovery of the day!

Barnaby carefully finds a beautiful blue egg tucked behind a tall, smiling flower. He gently places it in his basket.

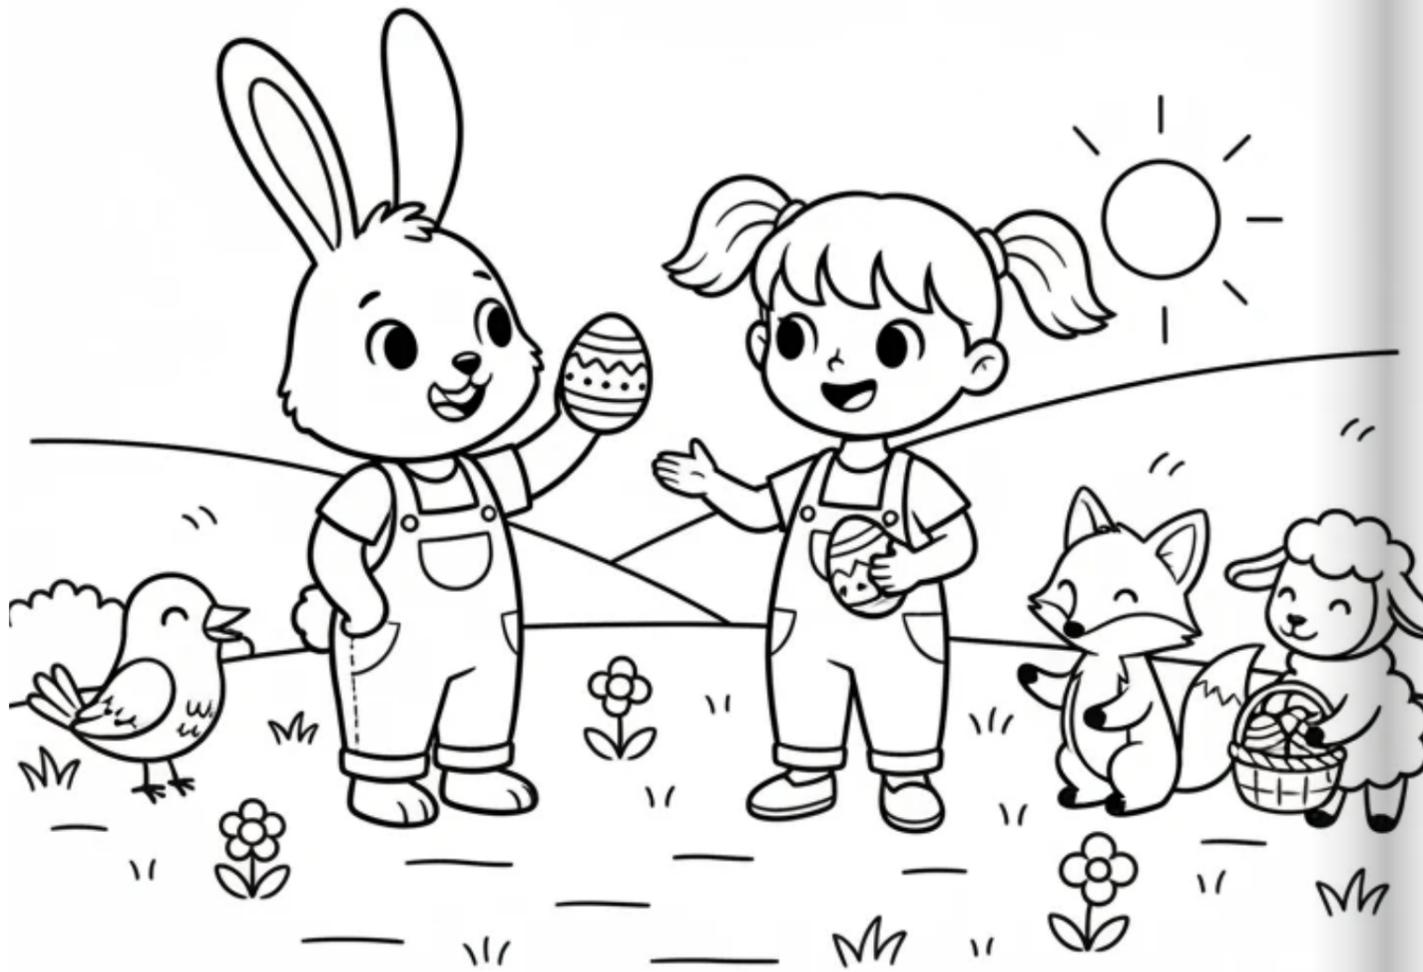

Rosie flies ahead, chirping excitedly. She points her beak to a sparkly pink egg resting safely in a tree branch.

Under a leafy bush, they work together to find a giant, striped chocolate egg! It's almost too big for their baskets.

Their baskets are now overflowing with eggs of every color. Barnaby and Rosie beam with pride at their wonderful collection.

Barnaby and Rosie decide to share their amazing eggs. They gather with other happy animal friends in a sunny meadow.

All the friends celebrate Easter together, laughing and sharing delicious treats. It's the happiest Easter ever!
