Allan's Colorful Week

Hello my friends! My name is Allan and I have brown hair and big, happy eyes. I have a warm smile just for you! I want to tell you all about my super Colorful Week.

Look at my room on Monday morning! It's a little bit messy, but it's full of fun. See my bright red chair next to my comfy bed, and my shiny blue lamp on my desk?

Sometimes my school bag hides under the table, but I always find it! My pencils are safe inside my yellow box, ready for drawing. I love my room because it's so comfortable!

On Wednesday, I love to help my mom in our warm kitchen. We have a big, white fridge and a cool, grey microwave. Can you see my favorite green mug on top of the cupboard?

In February, we make the most delicious cookies together! My mom and I mix and stir, and the kitchen always smells like sweet chocolate. It's so much fun to bake!

When Friday comes, I get ready to go to my classroom at school. I wave goodbye to my colorful house. I'm so excited to see my friends and my teacher!

Here I am in my bright classroom! I sit on my cozy orange chair behind my wooden desk. My classroom is a very happy place to learn new things.

Look! There is a big white board on the wall, and a purple clock above the door. My teacher, Mr. Smith, uses his pink markers to write the date for us. He's so kind!

On Sunday, after a sunny day, I get ready for the next week. I put my black notebook and my ruler carefully into my backpack. My shoes wait nicely in front of the wardrobe.

My house and my school are full of colors and fun things, just like my week! I hope you have a nice, colorful week too. Bye, kids!
