Welcome to Neo-City, a super shiny place with tall buildings and bright, glowing lights! Everything here hums with electric energy and neon colors. Look, holographic cards float softly in the air all around us.

First, meet King Neo! He sits on his grand, glowing throne, wearing a sparkling crown. King Neo is very smart and helps everyone in Neo-City.

Next, here is Queen Nova! She has a kind smile and a shimmering gown that glows with soft light. Queen Nova loves to make sure everyone is happy and cared for.

And look, it's Jack Jax! He zooms around on his speedy hoverboard, always ready for fun. Jack Jax is very brave and quick, helping with a playful wink.

One day, a tiny robot named Pip felt sad because a part of the city was dark. King Neo, Queen Nova, and Jack Jax gathered around a glowing map to help.

King Neo pointed to a spot on the map with his royal scepter, showing where a lost light crystal might be. Queen Nova gave Pip a comforting pat, promising they would find it.

Jack Jax zoomed off with a flash of electric green light, following the King's directions. He twisted and turned through the glowing streets, full of energy and determination.

Behind a giant, flashing advertisement, Jack Jax found the sparkling light crystal! It shimmered with beautiful rainbow colors, just waiting to be found.

Together, King Neo, Queen Nova, and Jack Jax placed the crystal back in its spot. Suddenly, the whole dark part of Neo-City lit up with bright, happy colors! Pip clapped its little metal hands with joy.

The three friends, King Neo, Queen Nova, and Jack Jax, stood tall and proud, waving to everyone. They are always ready for their next adventure, bringing light and happiness to their amazing neon city!
