Mu Ryan

Flickerwing Belle stretched her tiny wings in her cozy mushroom home.

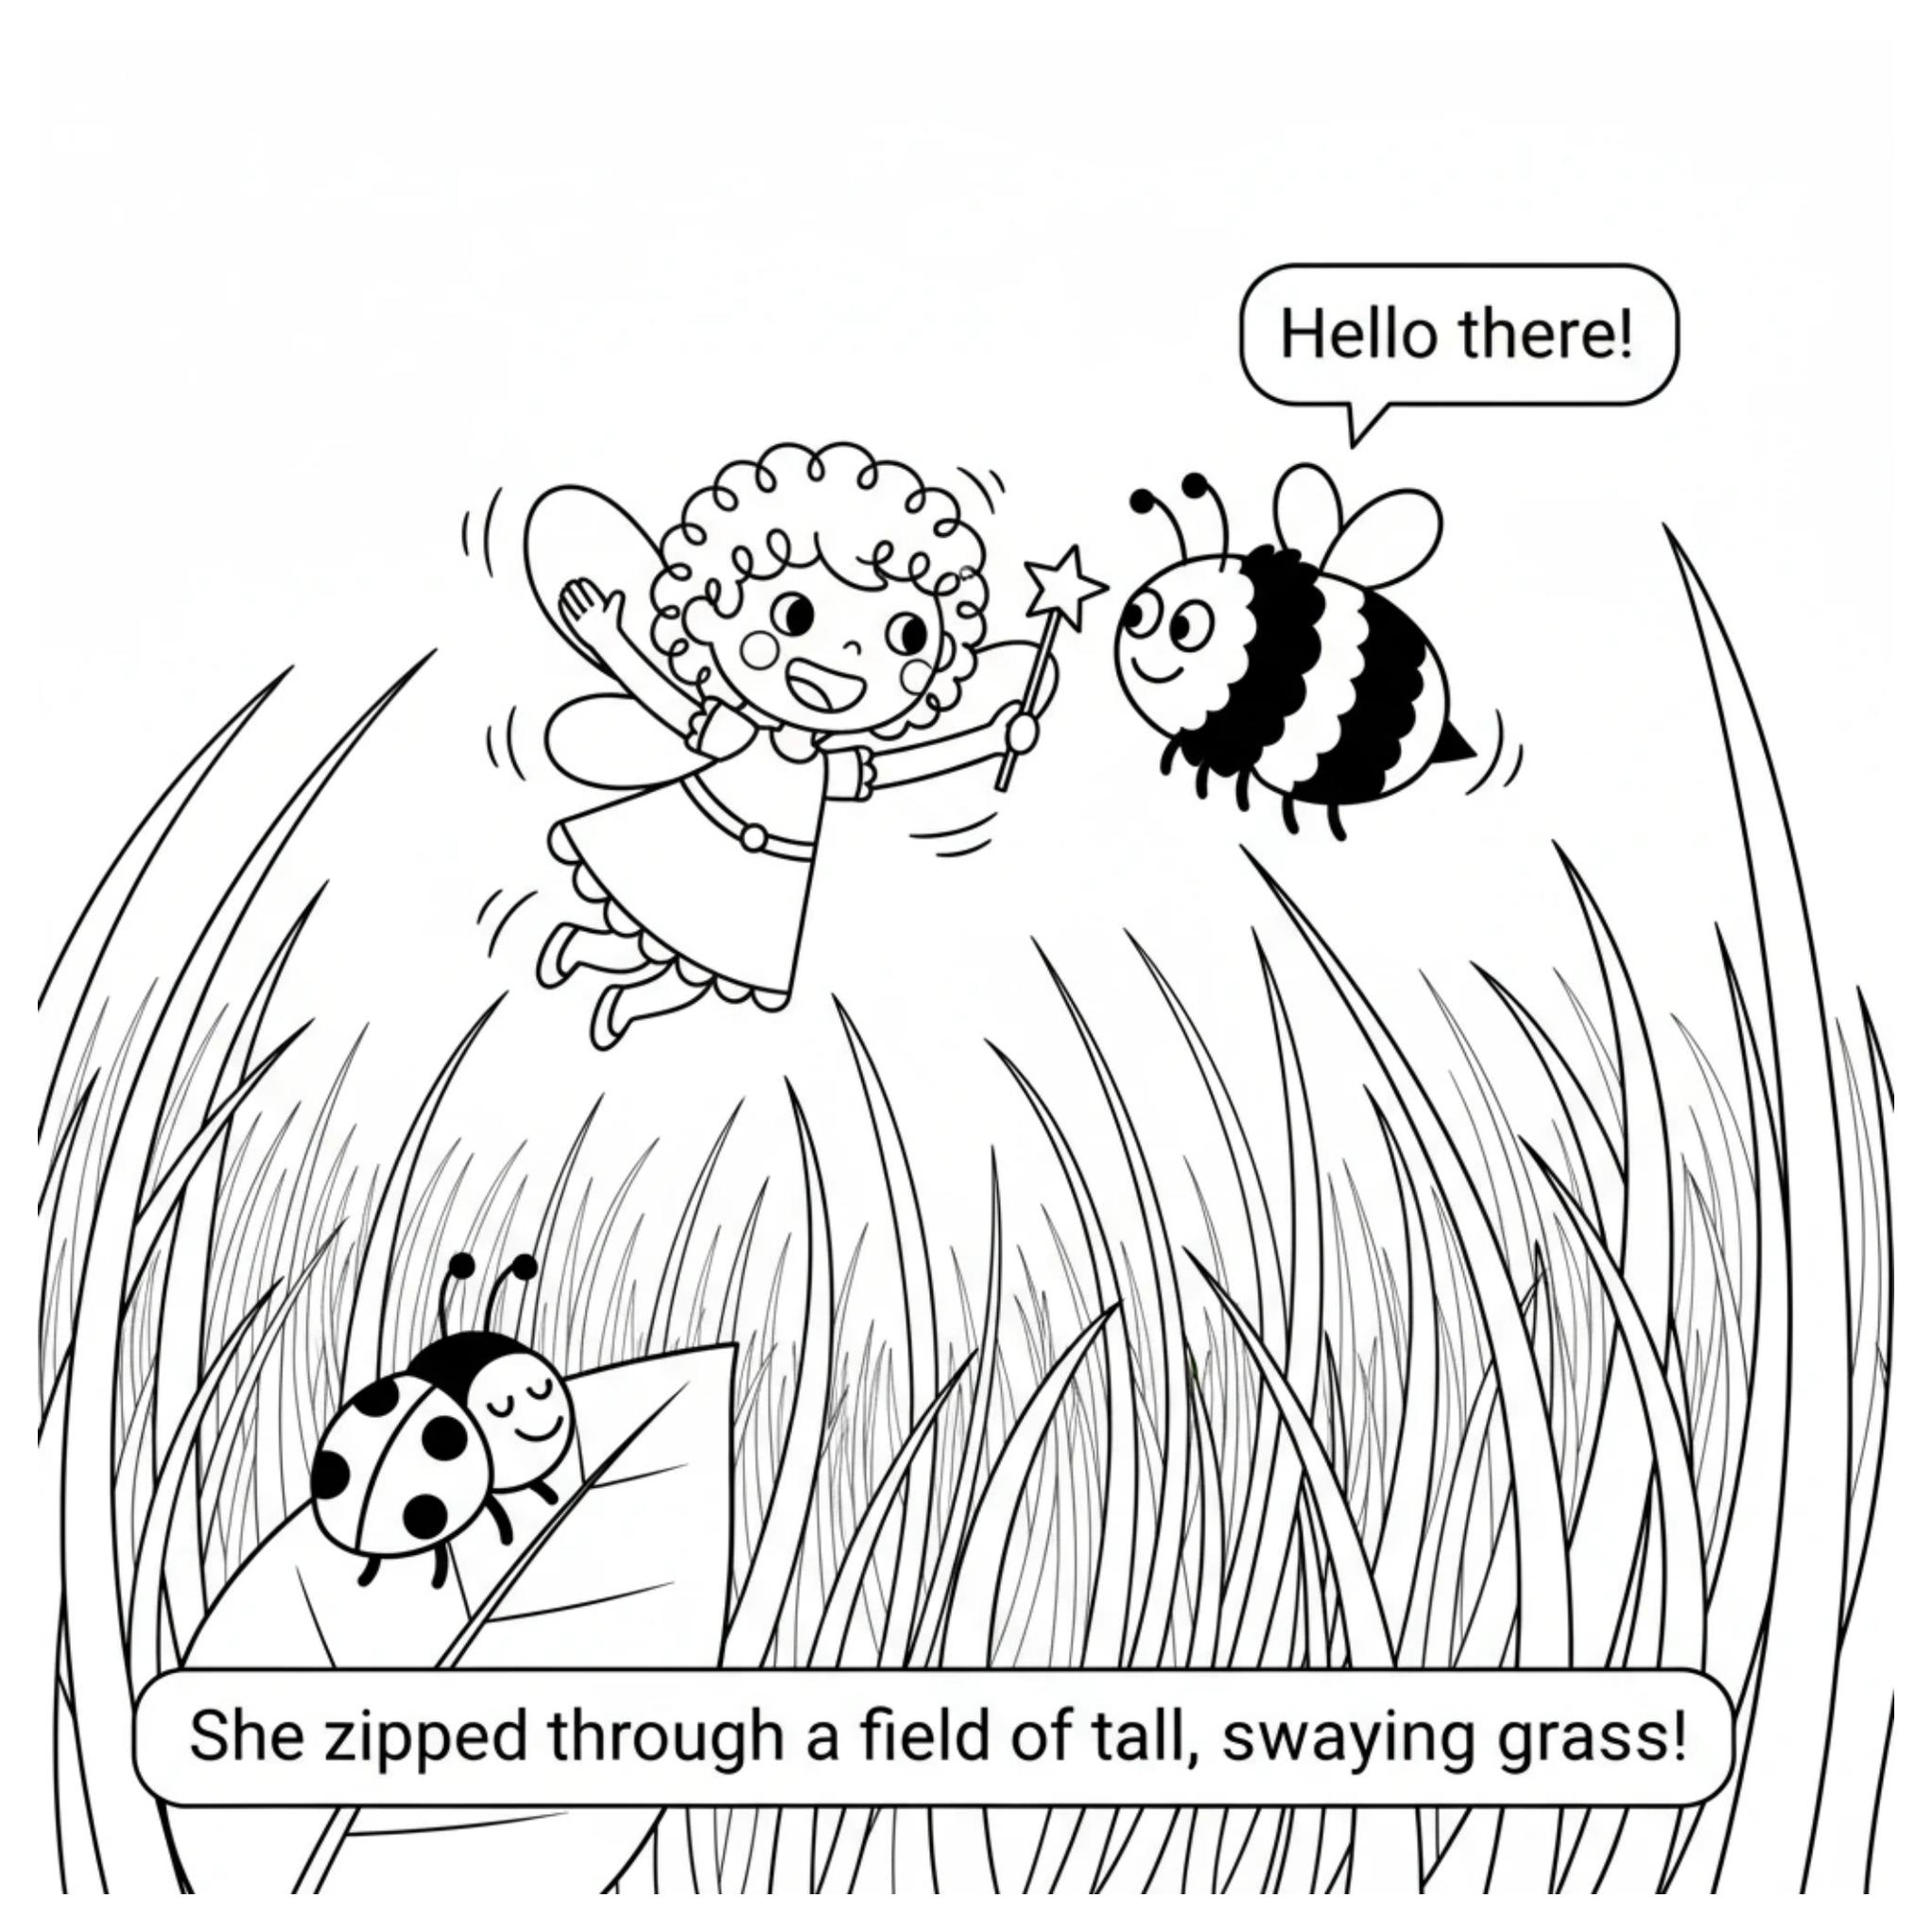

But something felt a little different today in the magical forest.

Scene 2: Her favorite star was dim...

Belle packed a berry snack and began her quest.

Hello there!

She zipped through a field of tall, swaying grass!

Excuse me, Mr. Owl, have you seen a
lost star twinkle?

Sometimes, lost sparkles
like to rest by the water.

Thank you!

Belle flew gracefully over the winding river, searching for a sparkle.
