

A Ball for Pip

Adeleke Naomi

Pip, a small kid, is out to play. The sun is up and bright. Pip sees a red ball. It is so big!

The ball is all alone. It sits on a green hill.
Pip goes near the ball. Pip wants to help.

Pip picks up the big red ball. It is a bit heavy for Pip. Pip hopes to find its home.

Pip runs with the ball. Pip looks here and there. Where can the ball go?

Pip sees a sad fox. The fox sits by a tree. It has big, wet eyes.

The fox sees the red ball. The fox makes a happy sound. Its tail wags fast.

Pip gives the ball to the fox. The fox is so glad. It takes its lost toy.

The fox gives Pip a big hug. It is a warm, soft hug. Pip feels so good.

Pip and the fox play with the ball. They run and jump high. Fun is had by all.

Pip and the fox are new friends. They sit side by side. What a nice day!
