SCENE 1/10

Daisy the cow stood in a green field. Her coat was plain white, and she felt a little bit plain too. She watched fluffy clouds drift slowly across the big sky. Daisy wanted something exciting to happen in her day.

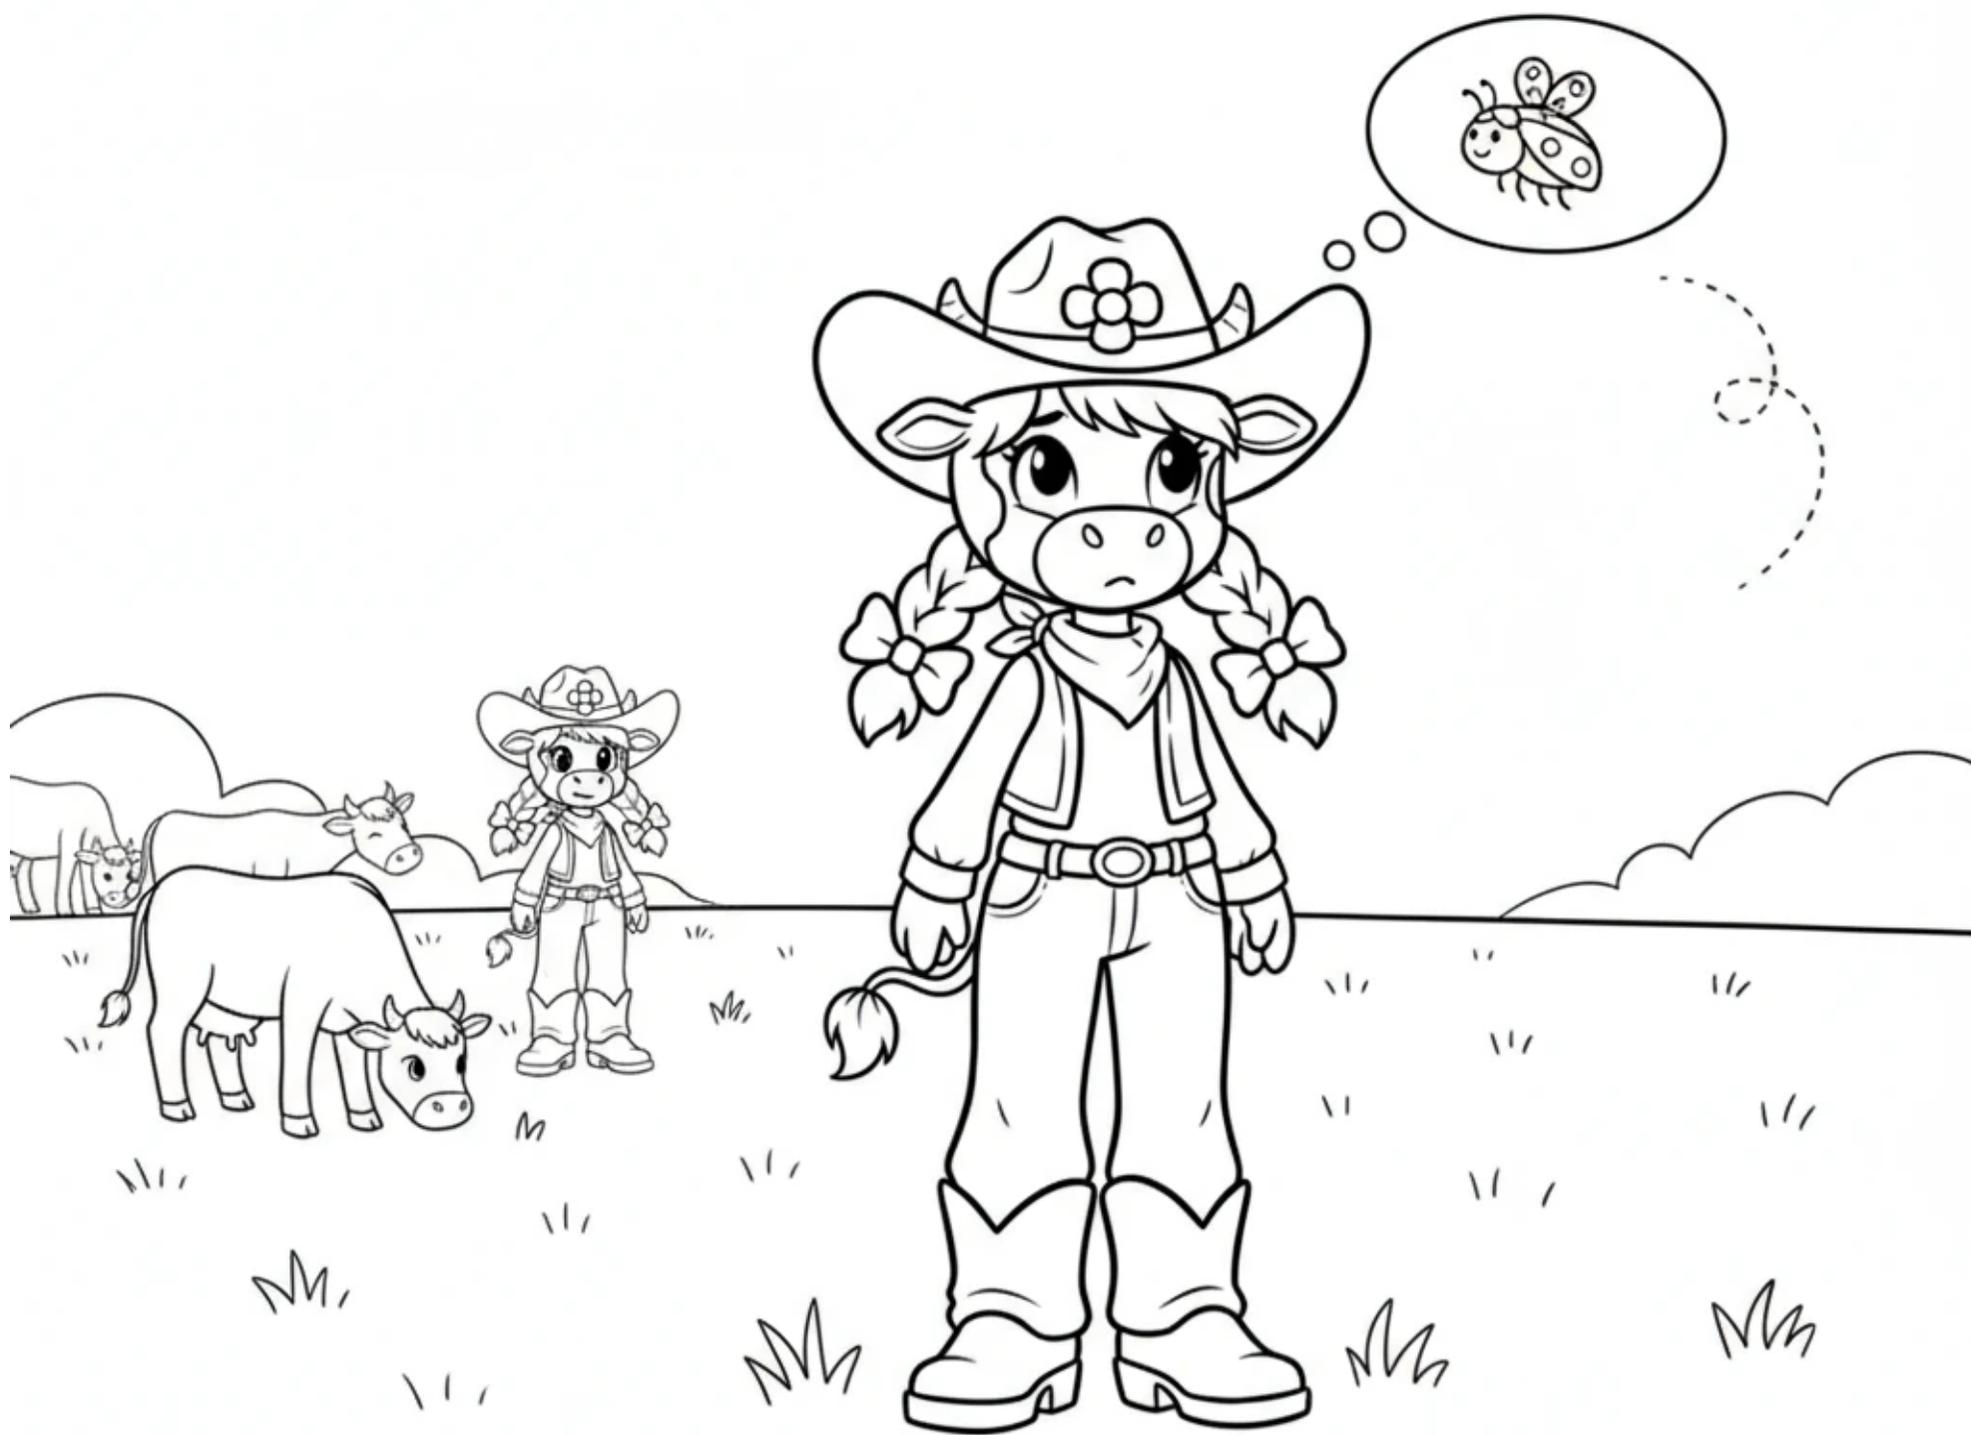

SUDUENLY!
A TINY LADYBUG LANDED ON HER NOSE!

Daisy watched the ladybug fly away,
leaving just tiny memory behind.

All other cows looked the like her. Daisy longed to be unique and full of joyful color.

Why the long face, Daisy?

I wish I were colorful.

'Finding colors is a wonderful adventure!'
sang the bluebird. 'You must look all around you, Daisy.'

Daisy found some juicy berries! She felt a little magic.

She wandered near Imagining the a babbling brook, cool blue.

It feels like a hug!

WARM SUNBEAM

I'M NOT JUST PLAIN WHITE ANYMORE!

See? The world is full colors, and so are we!

The next morning, Daisy proudly showed her new colors to her friends. Her friends looked on with admiring eyes, ready for their own colorful adventures.
