

Pip's Acorn Adventure

Pip's Acorn Adventure

Lea Sabovčíková

Pip the squirrel bounced with joy. He loved his big, green tree and its tasty, round acorns. But one sunny morning, all the acorns were gone! His little face looked very surprised.

Pip put on his tiny backpack and grabbed a small magnifying glass. He was a brave little squirrel ready for an adventure! He decided to find his missing acorns.

Soon, Pip found a shiny, blue feather near his tree. It was a clue! But then, a giant, wobbly rock blocked his path. Oh no!

Pip puffed out his cheeks and pushed with all his might. The big rock slowly rolled away! He felt super strong and gave a happy cheer.

Following the feather, Pip arrived at a sparkling, blue river. He saw a friendly, green frog sitting on a lily pad. "Can you help me?" Pip asked.

The kind frog smiled and offered a ride. Pip hopped onto the frog's bumpy back, giggling all the way. Splash, splash, they crossed the river!

On the other side, they found a huge, colorful tree. A fluffy, rainbow bird was busy building a cozy nest. The nest was full of shiny, round acorns!

Pip's eyes grew wide. The bird had collected all the acorns for its beautiful home. Pip felt a little sad, but the bird looked so happy.

The kind bird chirped a happy song and shared some acorns with Pip. Pip gave the bird a high-five, and they became instant friends. He even got a super shiny acorn!

With his special acorn and a big smile, Pip skipped all the way home. He knew there were always enough acorns and friends for everyone. What a wonderful adventure!
