Oliver's Journey to the Moonlit
Meadow

Oliver puts on his favorite star-patterned pajamas and snuggles under his soft, blue blanket. As his bedside lamp dims, the glow-in-the-dark stickers on his ceiling begin to shimmer and pulse like real stars in the night sky.

Suddenly, his bedroom floor transforms into a meadow of soft, glowing grass that smells like sweet lavender and warm vanilla. A giant, fluffy cloud drifts through his open window, inviting him to hop on for a midnight adventure.

Oliver soars high above the sleeping world, passing over shimmering silver rivers and forests made of velvet trees. A wise Great Owl, wearing a tiny golden crown, flies alongside him to guide the way through the starlit clouds.

They arrive at the Moon's edge, where a friendly Man in the Moon is busy blowing bubbles that turn into beautiful dreams for children everywhere. Oliver helps catch a few sparkling bubbles, feeling the gentle warmth of the moonlight on his happy face.

The fluffy cloud carries Oliver back through the window and gently tucks him back into his cozy, warm bed. With a happy sigh and a head full of magic, he closes his eyes and falls into a deep, peaceful sleep.
