

DR. KIND & CYBER-BOBBY: A NEW ADVENTURE

Bobby and Matrix's Big Day at the Vet

Alicia Janonis

Bobby tilts his head curiously as he watches his owner pull the dusty blue pet carrier out of the closet. Under the living room sofa, two glowing green eyes belong to Matrix, who is not quite ready for their unexpected morning car ride.

In the bright and cheerful waiting room, Bobby sits tall and proud on the patterned rug while a colorful parrot squawks a friendly hello from a nearby perch. Matrix stays tucked safely inside her carrier, her whiskers twitching as she cautiously observes the busy world of the animal clinic.

Dr. Kind hands Bobby a delicious peanut butter biscuit after his check-up, making his tail thump happily against the exam table. Matrix lets out a soft, vibrating purr as the gentle vet listens to her heart, realizing that being cared for is actually a very wonderful thing.
