

Leo's One-of-a-Kind Sparkle

Nesrine K

THE ADVENTURE BEGINS

Leo is a bright and happy boy who loves to play in the park under the golden sun. He has a very special way of looking at the world, and the world looks at him with wonder and curiosity too.

Leo has a big, wide smile that reaches all the way toward his ears, making him look like he is always ready for a celebration. His mouth is just the right size for extra-large giggles and the biggest pieces of yummy birthday cake.

His skin is very soft and stretchy, like a comfy blanket that grows right along with him as he gets taller. It feels different to the touch, making Leo unique, like a soft velvet teddy bear that everyone wants to hug.

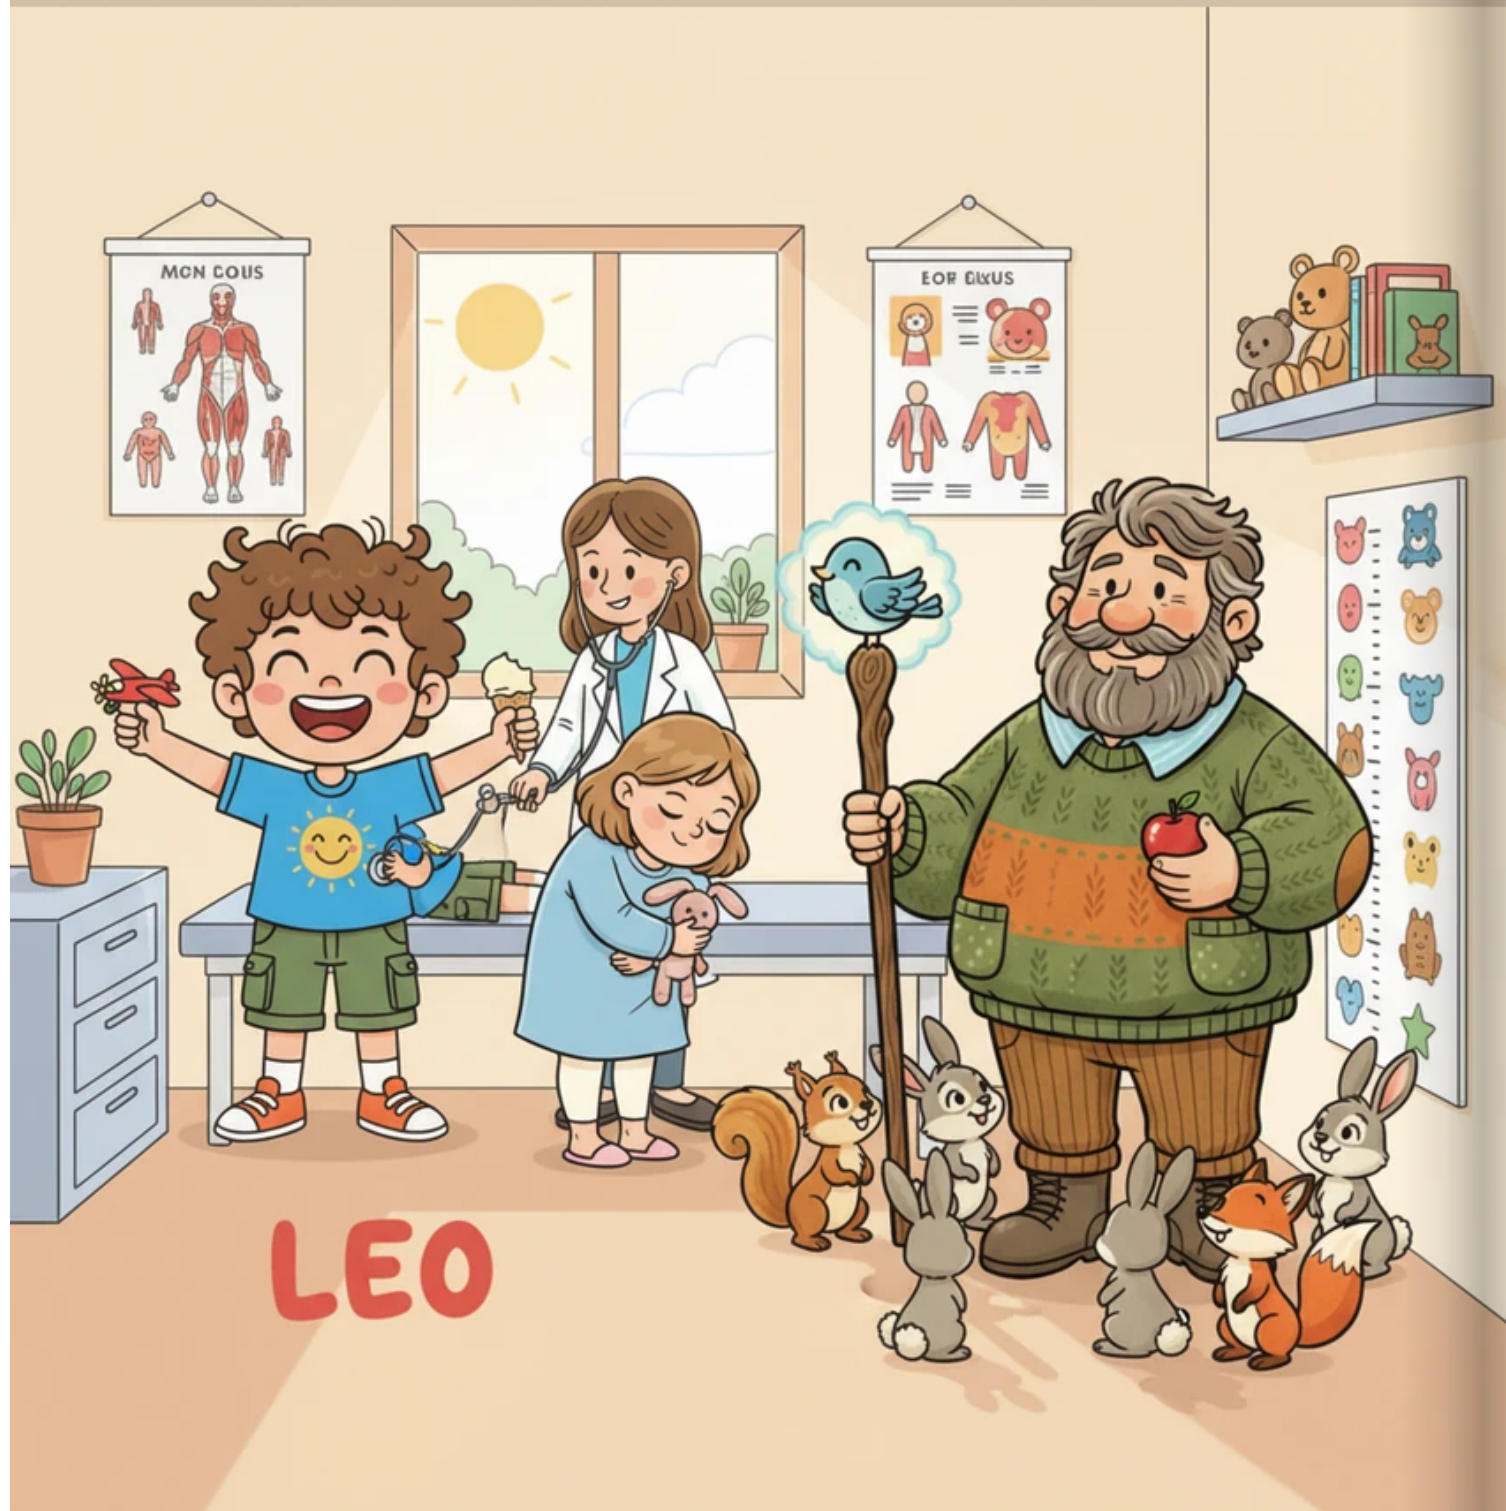

Leo's New Friends

Leo's eyes are wide and bright, always looking for the next adventure or a hidden butterfly in the garden. Sometimes his eyelids look a little different than other kids', but they help him see all the colors of the rainbow clearly.

He has very fine, soft hair and light eyebrows that feel like silk threads catching the morning light. Even though his hair is thin, his face is full of expression and shines with a light that comes from deep inside his heart.

Sometimes Leo visits special doctors who check on his superhero body to make sure he is growing strong and healthy. They use shiny tools and ask him to show off his amazing strength and his famous, wide-reaching smile.

At the playground, Leo meets many children who have different hair, different eyes, and different ways of running and jumping. He realizes that everyone is like a different puzzle piece, and together they make a beautiful, colorful picture.

Leo's mom and dad hug him tight every night, telling him that his rare sparkle is what makes him their favorite star in the sky. They explain that his syndrome is just one small part of the wonderful and brave person he is.

Just like a rare blue butterfly in a field of yellow ones, Leo stands out in the most beautiful and interesting way. He learns that being rare means he is a special treasure that the whole world is lucky to have.

Leo looks in the mirror and gives himself a big, happy wink and a giant, joyful grin. He knows that he is brave, he is loved by everyone around him, and he is perfect just the way he was made.
