Mu Ryan

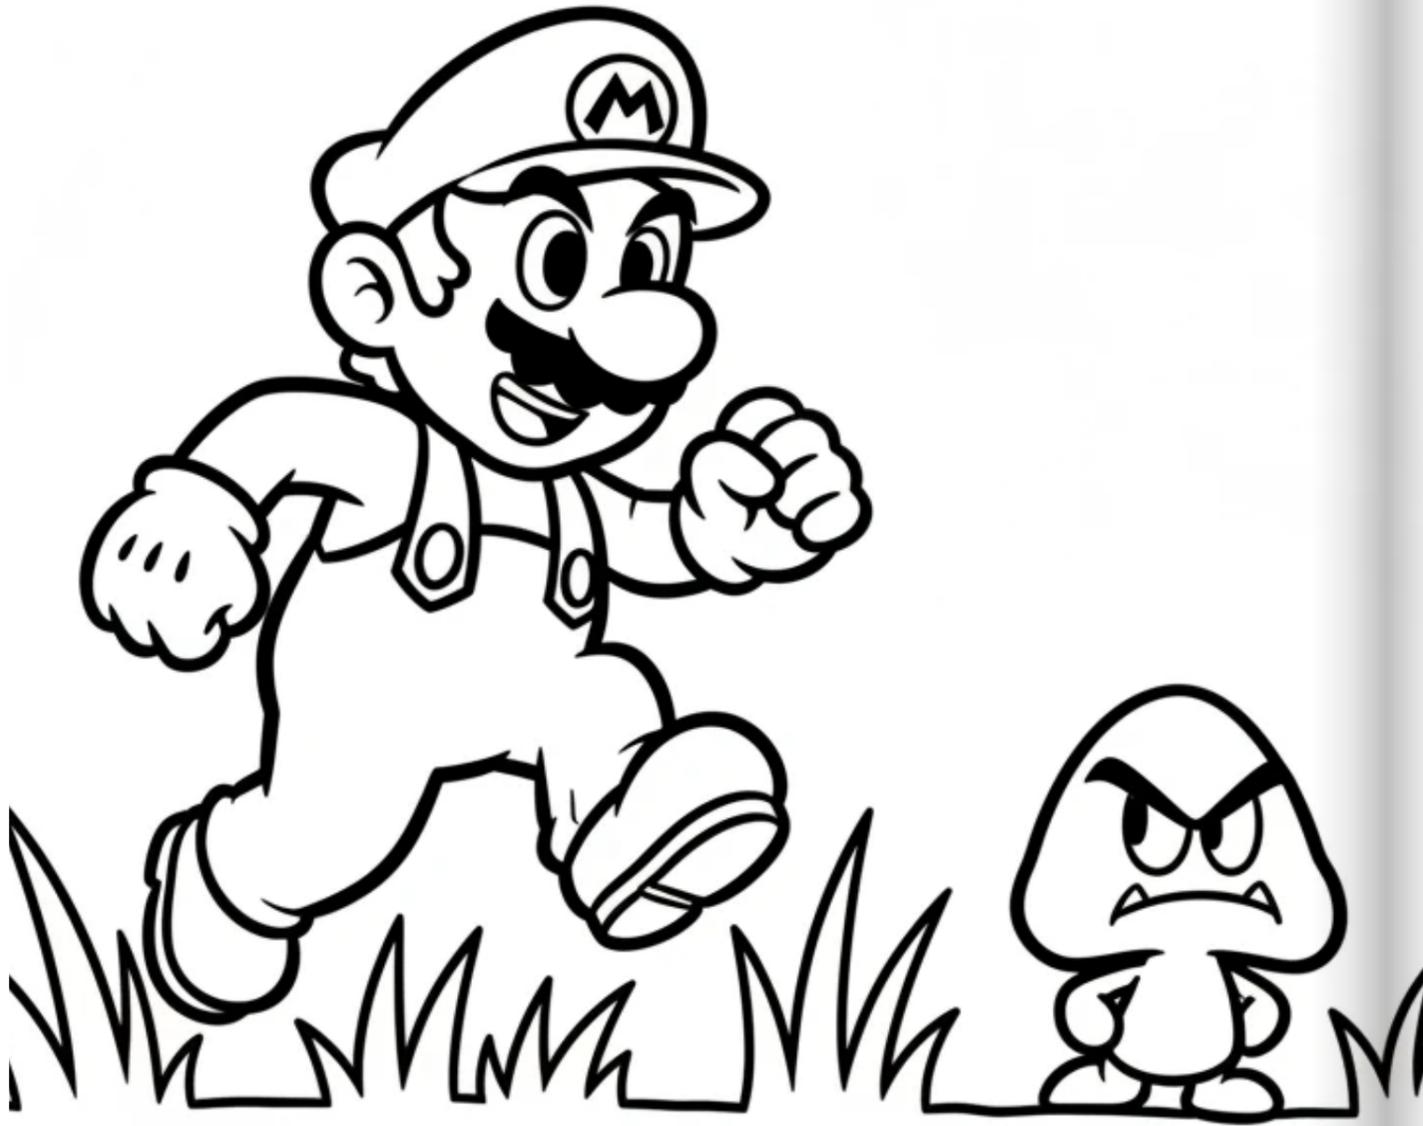

Mario is relaxing in his cozy house. He sips a drink and smiles, enjoying a quiet morning. The sun shines brightly through his window, promising a beautiful day.

Suddenly, a little Toad bursts in, looking worried. He holds a crumpled letter with a plea from Princess Peach. Mario's happy mood quickly turns to determination.

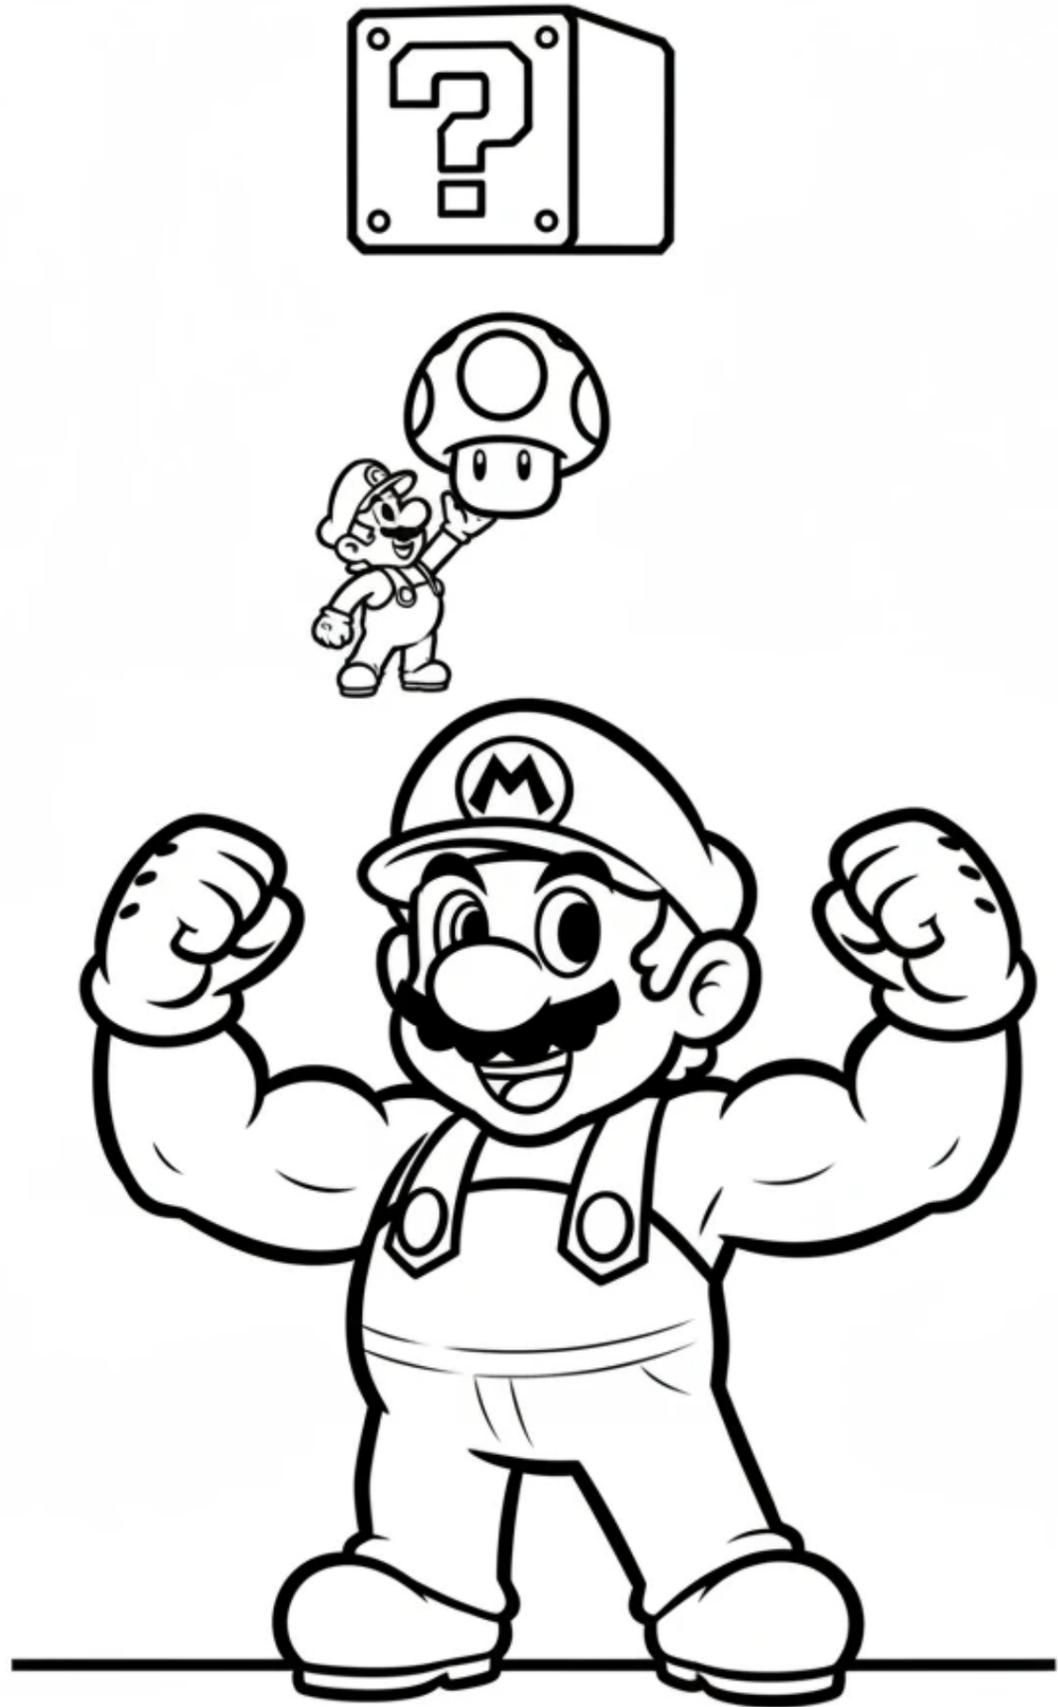

Mario puts on his trusty hat and overalls, ready for anything. He waves goodbye to Toad, his eyes set on a distant castle. His big adventure has just begun.

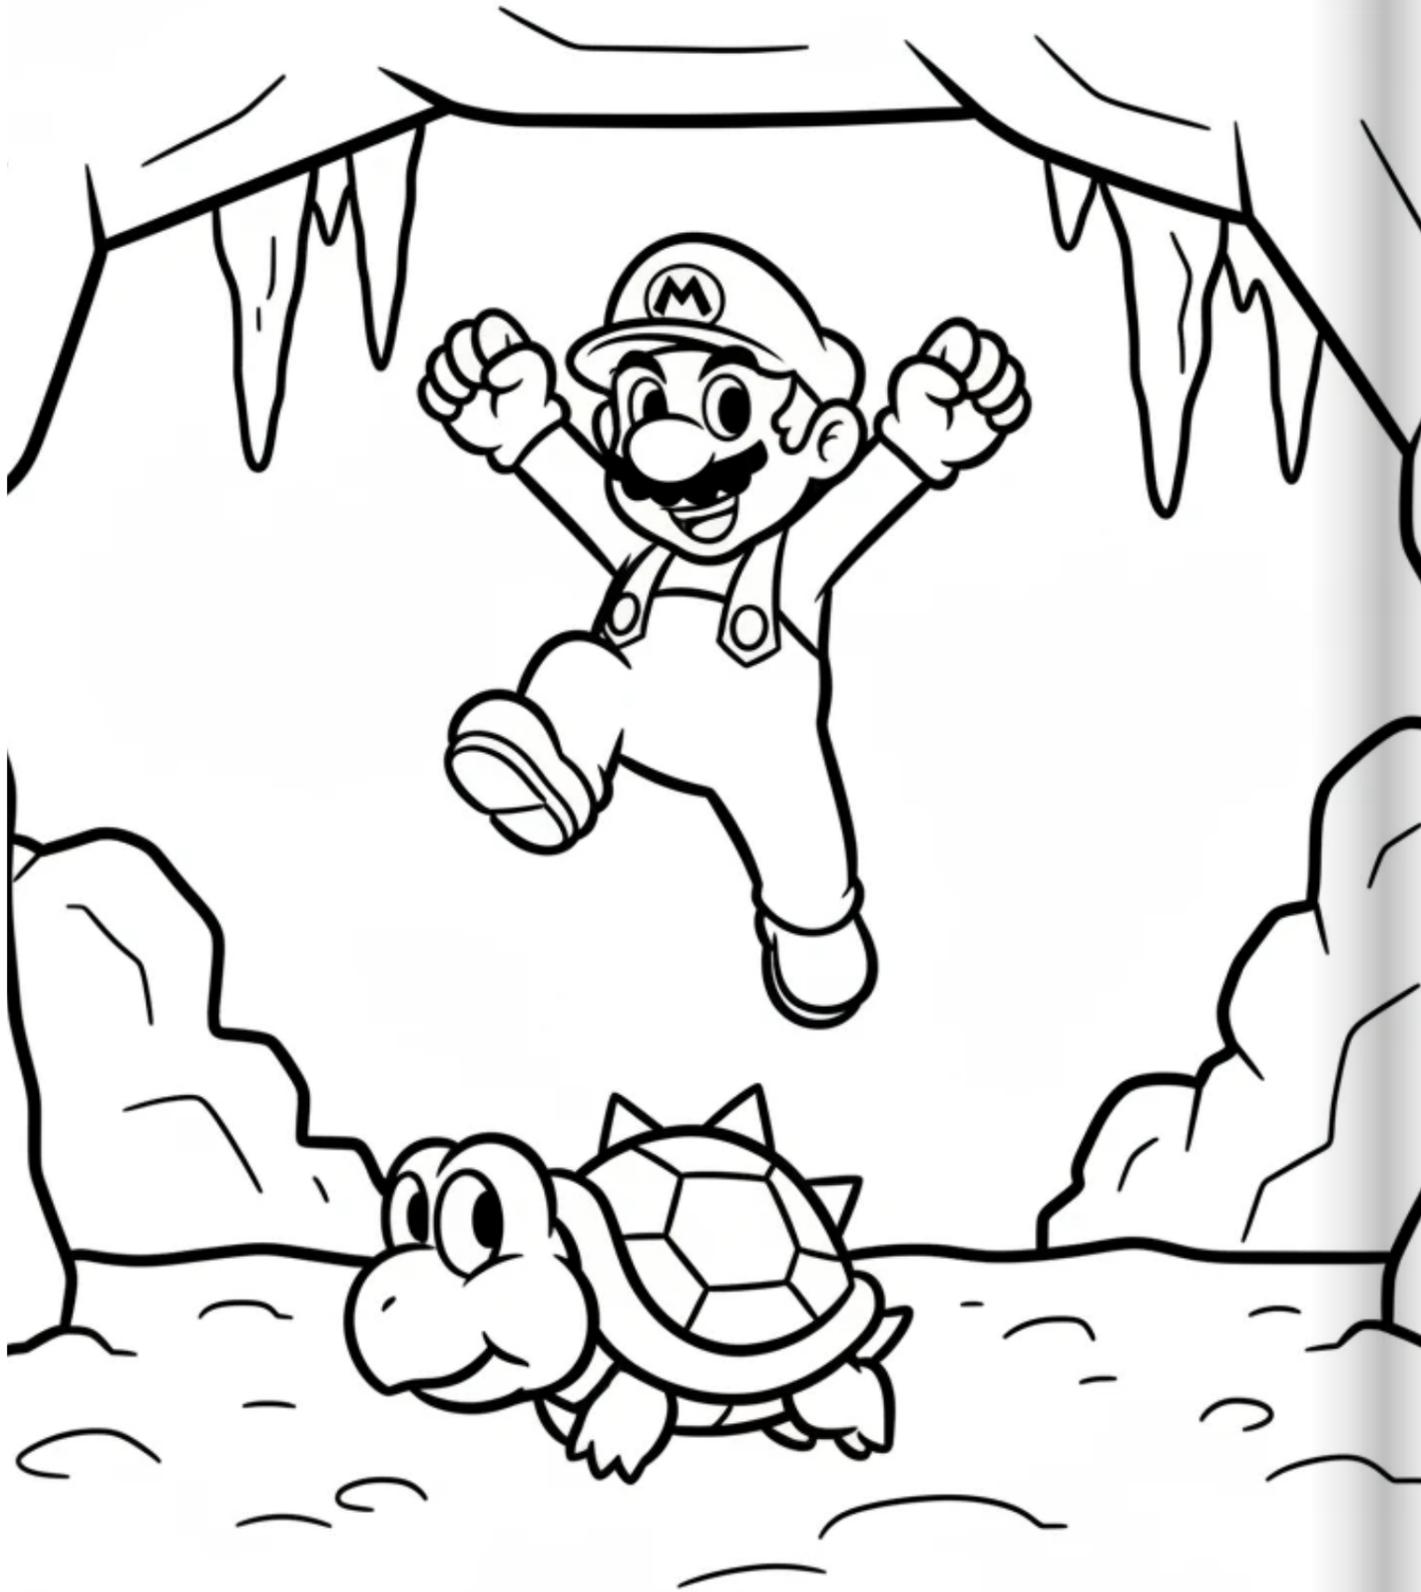

Mario walks through a vibrant green field, full of tall grass. He spots a grumpy Goomba waddling slowly towards him. Mario prepares to jump right over it.

He skillfully leaps across a series of green pipes. Shiny gold coins float in the air, waiting to be collected. Mario grabs them with a happy cheer.

Under a question mark block, Mario finds a magical Super Mushroom! He eats it quickly and grows much bigger and stronger. Now he feels ready for any challenge.

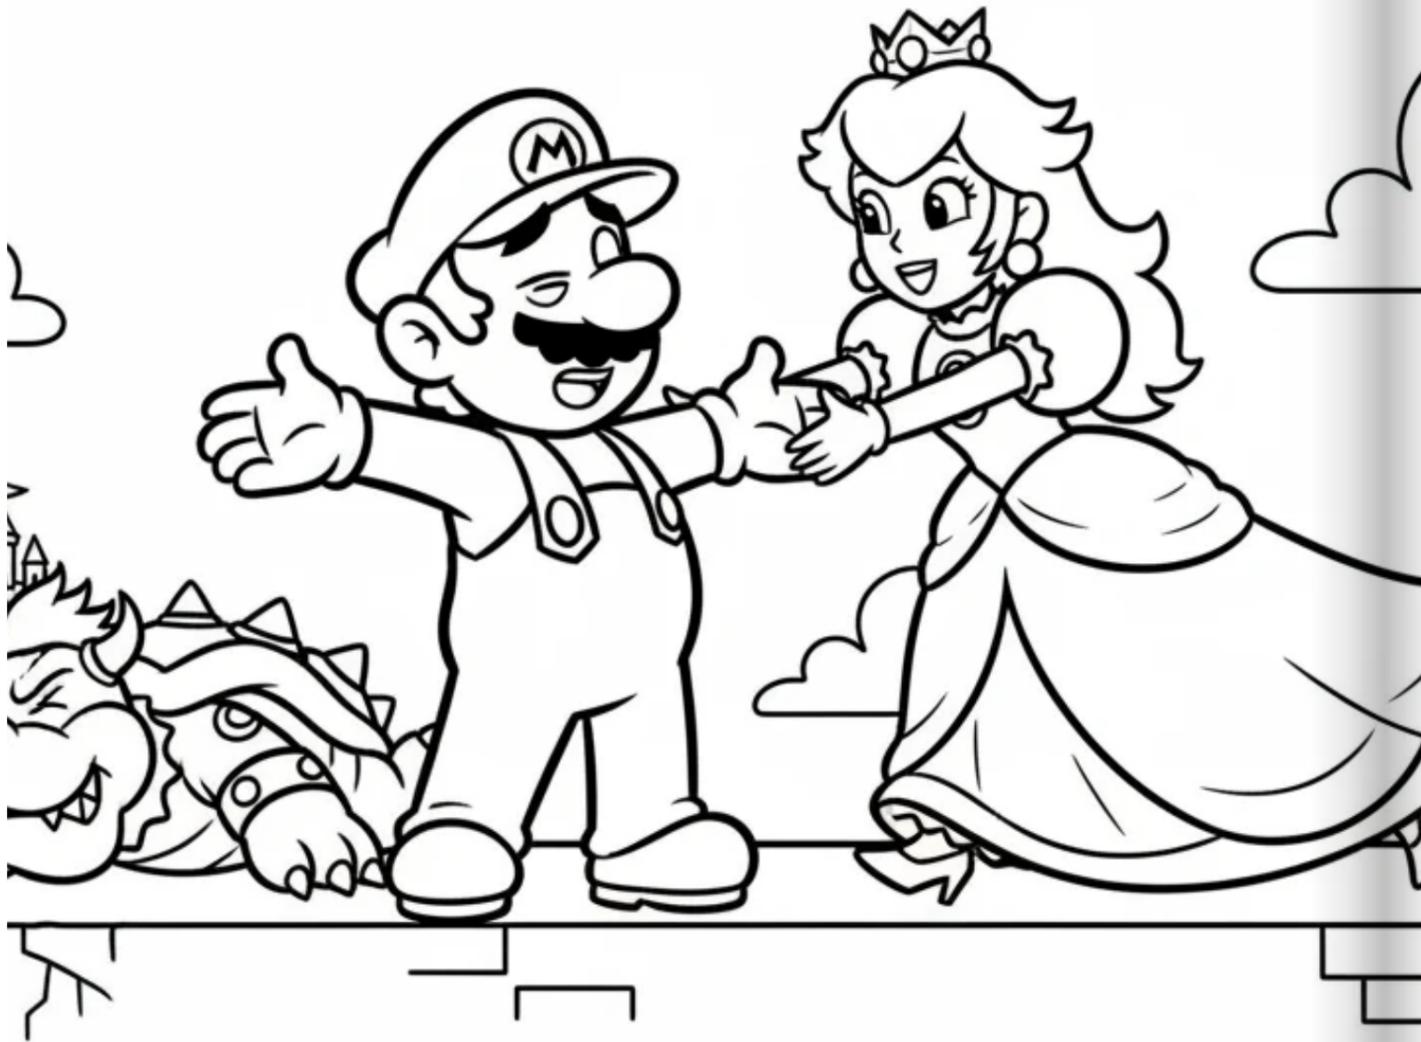

In a dark, rocky cave, a shelled Koopa Troopa slides back and forth. Mario carefully times his jump to avoid its spin. He knows he must be clever to pass.

Mario enters a grand, spooky castle with towering walls. Tricky platforms float over bubbling lava. He carefully navigates the dangerous path forward.

At the top of the castle, Mario finds the big, spiky Bowser! Bowser roars loudly, ready for a challenge. Mario takes a deep breath, ready to face his foe.

With a final heroic effort, Mario defeats Bowser! Princess Peach rushes to hug him, relieved and happy. Together, they celebrate their victory, ready to go home.
