

Le Voyage du Petit Cœur

abah christopher

Good morning, Léo!
A new day is full
of adventures!

Léo and his friends
followed the golden butterfly
across the bright meadow, where every step brought a new adventure.

Léo found a little bird shivering on a branch.

Without hesitation,
he wrapped his colorful scarf around it. In that moment, he felt a strange warmth
in his chest.

Taking care of others is the first way to spread love.

Sometimes, a small act of kindness can bring big smiles.

Léo saw the little girl's eyes sparkle with happiness again. His heartseed opened further, releasing a soft pink glow that floated into the air around them.

Together on the Wish Hill

A little girl, a little bird, and a big dream.

Small sparks,
big hearts,
a brighter tomorrow
together.

More than anyone, she could never feel alone under this sparkling sky.

A heart-shaped galaxy with a bright yellow core and swirling blue and purple arms is the central focus, floating above a bed. The room is dimly lit by a warm lamp on the left. The bed has blue pillows and a blue blanket with yellow stars. A boy and a girl are sleeping in the bed, holding a blue penguin and a brown teddy bear. The background wall is dark blue with a crescent moon and stars. A bookshelf with books and a small house figurine is on the right.

love is a treasure
that grows
when shared.
