

Pat and Nat's Big Day

Kavya Prince

Pat is a big orange cat with soft fur. Pat sat on a bright red mat in the warm morning sun.

Nat is a little gray rat who lives in a small hole. Nat has a tiny tan hat that he wears on his head.

Pat looks at Nat and sees the tan hat. Pat thinks the hat looks very fun and wants to play.

Nat ran fast to a big blue van parked in the lane. Pat ran fast to the van to see where Nat would go.

Nat hid under a shiny silver pan on the ground. Pat saw the pan and tapped it gently with his big orange paw.

Nat hopped out from the pan and sat on a wooden bat. Pat sat down next to him and let out a happy meow.

The two new friends walked together to a big stone dam. Nat had a small tin of sweet red jam to share for a snack.

Nat took off his tan hat and put it on Pat's head. Pat was a very glad cat to wear such a fine hat.

The sun was hot, so they sat together in the cool green shade. Pat and Nat had a lot of fun playing all afternoon.

Now Pat and Nat are the best of pals. The cat and the rat nap together on the soft red mat.
