

The Magical Fruit Garden of Geminia

by Farooq Ahmad

Lumi and Sol, the Gemini twins, skipped hand-in-hand into the shimmering, pastel-colored Fruit Garden. Giant trees, laden with glowing fruits, reached towards the sky like welcoming arms. Butterflies with rainbow wings fluttered around them, their tiny bells tinkling a sweet melody.

A plump, giggling bunny hopped up to Lumi, pointing with a carrot to a radiant, ruby-red apple. "That's the Strength Apple!" she squeaked. "It's full of energy!" The apple pulsed with a warm, inviting light, promising a burst of power.

Sol spotted a bright yellow banana tree, each banana radiating a golden glow. A cheerful monkey swung down, offering a banana. "These are the Happiness Bananas!" he chattered. "They bring smiles and joy!"

Next, they discovered a tree of emerald green grapes. A wise old owl perched on a branch, hooting, "The grapes hold the Secrets of Growth! They help you become strong and healthy, just like the trees!"

As they explored further, they met a playful squirrel, who showed them a tree of sparkling orange oranges. "These are the Health Oranges!" he chirped. "They keep you safe and well!" Lumi and Sol each took an orange, feeling a surge of energy.

Finally, the twins stood beneath a giant, shimmering rainbow tree. All the fruits combined their light, creating a dazzling display. They understood: a healthy body, a happy heart, and the strength to grow are the greatest treasures of all. They smiled at each other, ready for more adventures in Geminia.
