

The Sad Lad's Day

by Bump

Tim the lad was very sad. He felt like his day had started badly. He wished things weren't so bad.

His dad came in and saw the sad lad.
"What's wrong, my boy?" Dad asked.

Tim was mad that his toy car had broken. He had wanted to play with it all day. "It's the worst!" he cried.

Dad had a good idea. He said, "Let's fix it!"
Together, they found the tools.

After some work, Tim's car was fixed! The lad was no longer sad. He felt glad.

Tim and Dad played together with the car.
Now Tim knew that even if things are bad,
good things can happen!
