

Taliya's Royal Kiss

by Alexis Gagnon

Once upon a time, in a cozy little home, lived a sweet two-year-old named Taliya. She loved to play, giggle, and snuggle with her mommy and daddy. One sunny morning, Taliya woke up feeling extra special.

Her mommy gave her a big, warm hug and a kiss on the forehead. As the kiss landed, a tiny sparkle shimmered around Taliya's head. She giggled, not knowing what amazing things were about to happen!

Next, her daddy came in, scooped her up, and gave her a kiss on the cheek. Another sparkle appeared, brighter this time! Taliya's eyes widened, filled with wonder and delight. She felt different.

Suddenly, Taliya looked in the mirror and gasped! She wasn't just Taliya anymore. She was wearing a beautiful, sparkly crown! Her simple pajamas transformed into a lovely princess gown.

Taliya, the new princess, looked at her mommy and daddy, who were beaming with pride. They cheered and told her how much they loved her. The whole house felt like a grand palace now!

From that day on, Taliya knew that kisses from her mommy and daddy were the most magical thing in the world. They filled her with joy, love, and the special feeling of being a princess in her very own castle.
